

Session Recessed With Agreement on Property Tax Relief

Both Surplus, General Funds
To be Used to Aid Elderly

BY HARVEY BREUSCHER

MADISON (AP)—The Wisconsin Legislature, dominated by Republicans and spurred by a Democratic governor, has reached accord on a proposal that will channel $10.3 million a year to low income persons of retirement age.

Framed as a property tax relief measure, the program adopted Wednesday will aid needy citizens over 65 whether or not they live in their own home. The benefits will go to those with annual earnings of less than $3,000 and take the form of an income tax credit or refund.

Reynolds to Sign Bill
As an example, an individual with an income of $1,000 could get a benefit of about $187.

Gov. John W. Reynolds has indicated he will sign the measure, even though the aid is less than the $17 million he sketched the method of financing was altered from his original proposal.

Adoption of the compromise plan brought to a close the spring legislative session that began April 13. Under terms of a recess resolution drafted by the Republican majority, the Legislature will not reconvene until Nov. 9, or six days after the general election.

The scheduled return date does not take into account the distinct possibility of a special session should Reynolds gain ground in his running fight with the Senate over appointive powers. The governor has said he will renew a Supreme Court test of his authority to put appointees in state jobs without Senate confirmation.

Already before the court is the realignment of the Senate and Assembly districts, the result of Reynolds' veto of a Republican sponsored reapportionment plan sent him early in the spring meeting. The Supreme Court has said it will take over the job Friday and complete it by May 15.

Conferees Agree
It took a conference committee to break a stalemate on financing the tax relief plan. Reynolds and the Democratic minority insisted the money should come from general funds, and the governor said the initial outlay would be covered

Britain Asked to Revise Cuban Trade Program

U. S. Wants to Keep
From Castro's Hands

WASHINGTON (AP)—Top U.S. officials are understood to have urged anew in private talks here this week that Britain revise its policy of trade with Cuba and support the U.S. effort to deny vitally needed industrial and transportation equipment to the Castro government.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk has held a series of discussions on world problems with British Foreign Secretary R. A. Butler. President Johnson had a conference with Butler Wednesday.

Officials have confirmed that Cuban issues were raised in the Rusk-Butler talks. The White House only said that the foreign secretary and the President discussed matters of mutual interest.

Traveling to Japan
Butler has been in Washington for a conference of the Central Treaty Organization which ended Wednesday. He is going on to Japan and the Philippines for talks seeking some way to avoid a serious crisis between Indonesia and British-backed Malaysia over territorial claims pressed by Indonesia.

Butler is understood to be pleased by the support Britain has received from the United States in its efforts to preserve the territorial integrity of Malaysia.

Top U.S. officials by contrast are known to be displeased by Britain's Cuban trade policy which they regard as a breaking of the barrier of economic isolation from non-Communist trade which the United States has been working to build around Cuba.

Only Effective Curb
Butler is believed to have been told, as U.S. officials have recently said publicly, that the denial of important industrial and transportation supplies to Castro is the only effective weapon presently available to the United States for countering Castro's attempts to spread communism in the Western Hemisphere through propaganda and subversion.

The British counterargument to the U.S. boycott policy is that the boycott is not really effective, that the United States trades with various Communist countries including the Soviet Union, and that Britain traditionally trades with all countries regardless of political considerations.

Britain made a deal with the Castro government last January to sell Cuba 450 buses and spare parts at a total cost in excess of $12 million.

Reds Demand That U. S. Fleet Quit Indian Ocean

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)—The Communist-controlled navigation and dockworkers union will boycott all American ships unless the U.S. 7th Fleet withdraws from the Indian Ocean, the Communist party newspaper Harijan Rakyat said today.

The union urged President Sukarno's government to take over all American firms in Indonesia if the boycott threat does not force U.S. warships out of the Indian Ocean, which Sukarno has renamed the Indonesian Ocean.

Cease-Fire Violated in Greek Cypriot Attack

Some of Her Traffic Tickets were for overtime parking so Diane Seidl of Santa Monica, Calif., wears an identifying sign as she works as a volunteer parking meter collection attendant Wednesday. The alternative was five days in jail and $122 in fines. That was the choice she got from Municipal Judge W. Blair Gibbons who is known for his novel penalties for traffic violators. Court Accused of Ignoring Congress

Bishop Sheen and Alabama
Governor Hit Prayer Ban

BY JOHN W. BECKLER

WASHINGTON (AP)—Roman Catholic Bishop Fulton J. Sheen and Gov. George C. Wallace of Alabama separately accused the Supreme Court today of bypassing the country's elected representatives by banning official prayer in public schools.

Sheen, auxiliary bishop of New York, told the House Judiciary Committee the Supreme Court ruling is based on a myth, and "a judicial body has become a legislative body."

Wallace said, "We are being manipulated by the courts in a gigantic socialistic pattern in which the federal judiciary amends the Constitution." Wallace, who has fought the court on issues of racial segregation, said its prayer decision is a "decree as sweeping and as deadly as any ever issued by any dictatorial power on the face of this earth."

"It is part of the deliberate design to subordinate the American people, their faith, their customs, and religious traditions to a godless state."

Bishop Sheen said that the words "In God we trust," now on the seal of the United States, are "the perfect prayer" for school.

Asked by committee members whether that is the full extent of the prayer he would suggest, Bishop Sheen replied: "I, personally, would like more; but, as an American citizen aware of the pluralism in our national life, I would be satisfied with this."

The committee is examining numerous measures for a constitutional amendment to undo the court decision. It has been accused by Rep. Frank J. Becker, R-N.Y., chief sponsor of the proposals, of stalling.

No Report Of Damage To Castle

BY WEBB MCKINLEY

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP)—The Greek Cypriots broke their cease-fire in the Kyrenia mountain range today with a mortar attack on Turkish Cypriots defending the besieged castle of St. Hilarion.

Seven mortar shells were fired at the castle in 15 minutes, but there was no immediate report of damage. The cease-fire ended 13 hours after it was announced.

A spokesman for the Greek Cypriot government expressed surprise at the U.N. report of the mortar fire. He said as far as he knew, the cease-fire still was supposed to be in effect.

The U.N. command reported that a Canadian patrol of the U.N. peace force came under fire at the Turkish village of Agirda, in the southern foothills of the Kyrenia range. Presumably the fire came from Greek Cypriot positions along the crest of the range near St. Hilarion.

New Peace Plan Offered
Both the U.N. command and the Turkish Cypriots had looked with skepticism on the cease-fire, which was announced after the U.N. command and Secretary-General U Thant put strong pressure on the Greek Cypriots to end their five-day-old operation against Turkish Cypriots controlling the main highway from Nicosia to the Port of Kyrenia, on the north coast.

Thant also unveiled a new peace plan to the Security Council.

Swedes Seize Weapons
U.N. soldiers disarmed a group of Cypriot battlers Wednesday night for the first time since the peace force became operational March 27.

A Swedish contingent seized weapons from a party of Greek Cypriots who apparently had fired on the Swedish troops in the mixed Greek-Turkish village.

Quake Caused Break in Radar Warning System

TOKYO (AP)—Gen. John K. Gerhart, commander in chief of the North American Defense Command, said today a power failure during the Alaska earthquake last month knocked a seven-minute hole in America's radar warning system against surprise attack.

Gerhart's disclosure to newsmen contradicted a Defense Department announcement shortly after the quake that the warning system across North America had continued to function normally.

Gerhart said generators at the warning installation at Clear, Alaska, broke down but power was swiftly restored.

"We cranked up and made the necessary repairs," he said.

Mississippi Fails To Ban Republicans

State's Senate Passes 22
Bills, House Rejects Them

BY JAMES SAGGUS

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—The move to stamp out Republicanism in Mississippi with new election laws looked like another lost cause today.

The 22 bills backed by Gov. Paul Johnson, which passed the State Senate, ran into surprisingly strong opposition in the House.

After two straight setbacks in House votes, Rep. Roy Strickland, floor manager of the package of bills, showed little hope for future victory.

"I think Wirt Yerger, State Rep. M. L. McAllister and Sen. Dirksen have won their battle," he said.

Yerger is state GOP chairman. McAllister is the only Republican in the Mississippi Legislature. Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, R-Ill., is the party's Senate minority leader.

The revolt against Johnson's election bills was signaled Tuesday when a key bill was sent back to committee for further study.

Rep. Abie Miller of Greene, Miss., told the House the move against the GOP "could upset bringing in industry to Mississippi."

Strickland's second defeat came Wednesday.

Key bills in the package would force the state's budding GOP to measure up to major party standards in organization and operation.

At present, the GOP couldn't make the grade.

Heavy GOP Gains
The party made its first serious bid for the governorship in the last election, astounding Democrats by drawing almost a third of the votes. The proposed election laws were the reaction.

The key bill referred back to committee would set these standards: Half the precincts in a county must stage precinct conventions before a county convention is valid.

Thirty of the state's 82 counties must stage valid county conventions before a state convention is valid.

The other key bill would force all candidates to run in primary elections, even if unopposed, and primary winners would have to draw at least 10 percent of all votes cast in both party primaries to be eligible for the general election ballot.

Arthritis Victim Gets Handicapped Award

Worst U. S. Handicap, Johnson Says

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson told a meeting of the handicapped today that the nation's worst handicap is those who "spread discord and breed distrust."

The President presented Jerry J. Walsh, an arthritis victim from Corona, Long Island, N.Y., with a plaque designating him Handicapped American of the Year. Walsh is an educational consultant for the Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation.

Addressing his committee on employment of the handicapped, Johnson said: "Our efforts to build a great society in this nation are being opposed by those who suffer from a handicap not of the body or mind, but of the soul."

He said such people "see America in terms of regions or classes or races—not in terms of a people committed to great ends." He added: "They spread discord and distrust—tearing down instead of building up—dividing instead of uniting. All the while, they are the nation's worst handicap."

Johnson, who spoke in the departmental auditorium, said he was issuing new instructions to all agencies "to show the nation what can be done to make fuller use of the abilities of handicapped Americans." He said, "An enlightened government can—and will—and must—lead the way in this field."

WASHINGTON (AP)—Reductions of tariffs on American beer shipped to Europe were urged today by Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis.

"A policy of tariff reductions by our European allies in Gatt has advantages from every standpoint," Proxmire said. "It encourages freer trade among friendly nations, it improves our balance of payments and it stimulates employment in a significant domestic industry."

Tests Prove Successful

Army's New Device to Assure Quick Foxholes

COLUMBUS, Ga. (AP)—The U.S. Army has come up with a successful device destined to gladden the heart of every infantryman—an instant foxhole.

To dig a proper foxhole in the past, a soldier needed a pick, shovel, stamina and sometimes a prayer. And there were reports that some GIs and Marines in a hurry dug sufficient holes with their bare hands.

A team from the U.S. Combat Development Command's infantry agency put the new development on display Wednesday at Ft. Benning.

Hole Is Blasted
The result may make it possible for a soldier to pick up a one-pound foxhole digger from the supply sergeant and take a rest while the thing digs a hole for him.

What's more, says the Army, the hole can be dug in the hardest, rockiest ground.

The foxhole digger comes in two parts—the first part for blasting a small hole two inches in diameter and several inches deep. This is known as a pilot hole.

The second part of the device is placed in the pilot hole, a primer is set, and the soldier gets out of the way for about 30 seconds while a cratering explosion digs the foxhole.

The instant foxhole was developed at the Engineer Research and Development Laboratory, Ft. Belvoir, Va.

The demonstration showed the device works best in hard, rocky, clay-type soil or frozen ground. This is because dirt blasted from soft, loam-type soil tends to cave in along the sides and the soldier has to pitch it out with a shovel.

Although the device still is in the experimental stage, it is expected to be tested in the field by troops beginning in October.

The instant foxhole varies from 20 to 36 inches deep and about two feet in diameter.

Castro Vows to Use Weapons to Halt U. S. Flights

HAVANA (AP)—Prime Minister Fidel Castro said Wednesday night Cuba will try to prevent U.S. reconnaissance flights over this island "to the limits of what our weapons can do."

But in remarks to diplomats and newsmen attending a Japanese diplomatic reception, he did not specify if that means Cuba will use Soviet rockets to try to bring down U.S. U2 planes.

The United States has announced it will continue such flights despite Cuban protests and Soviet support of the protests.

Prompt Correction for Prostate Abnormalities

BY JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.
Dear Dr. Molner: I am a 57-year-old man and have trouble passing my urine.

I don't have any pains except a little burning sensation for a short time. I wonder if the problem could have anything to do with my prostate gland?
Dr. Molner H. S.
This may result from an enlarged prostate gland. There could be other causes but they are not very common. Prostate trouble is.

The prostate is an unusual organ. It is partly muscle, partly glandular, and it is shaped something like a warped doughnut. It encircles the urethra, through which urine is released from the bladder.
If the prostate becomes swollen or enlarged it can make the flow of urine difficult or even make it impossible to empty the bladder completely, which is an invitation to chronic infection. In some cases, surgery is necessary to relieve the condition—and, in fact, may be urgent if it has been allowed to progress too far.
In other cases lesser treatment often is adequate. The sooner it is treated the better, for several reasons. First, the annoyance is stopped. Second, it is easier to treat. Third, deferring treatment can be a risk to your life, because sometimes the enlargement is caused by cancer. Of course, other causes may be involved, such as a stone or infection of some sort.

You implied that one can waste money on vitamins of the type recommended for people in their 50's, 60's and older. What do you advise?—MRS. L. M.
I didn't intend to imply that. I meant to stress that some people are wasting money by falling for the fancy sales pitches about super guaranteed vitamins and minerals.
I'm not opposed to vitamins! But a well-balanced diet gives you all you need.
I still feel that it's preferable in the long run to see your doctor once or twice a year and let him guide you to vitamin pills that will be better and cheaper—if you need them at all.
Dear Dr. Molner: I am a diabetic and one tablet a day controls my case. I also use a test and it doesn't show on the test. Reasonable amount of sweets and it doesn't show on the test tape. Is this safe to go as long as the tape test does not show sugar?—MRS. L. B. S.
You and I may have different ideas as to what constitutes "sweets." To me the word means candy, coffee cake, glazed doughnuts, jam, jelly, desserts, sugar in beverages and so on.

"A reasonable amount" isn't very definite, either.
If one tablet a day controls your case, you are lucky. But why stretch your luck? With diabetes, the body can't handle carbohydrates (starches and sugar) normally.
It is possible for your blood sugar level to be elevated without showing in the urine test.
And what about your weight? If you are gaining, "it's time to reverse that trend. My advice boils down to "play safe."
Count your calories the easy way! To receive a copy of my pamphlet, "The Calorie Chart," write Dr. Molner in care of Appleton Post-Crescent, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and five cents in coin to cover cost of printing and handling.

TB Eradication Possibility Cited

Dr. R. P. Jahn, State Group Director, Speaks in Kaukauna

Dr. R. P. Jahn, medical director of the Wisconsin Anti-Tuberculosis Association, Milwaukee, raised the hope of eradication of tuberculosis in his address at the Outagamie County Tuberculosis Association's annual dinner meeting Wednesday in the Kaukauna Elks Club.

Using all data available, the medical profession can pinpoint any potential case of tuberculosis and can prevent it, Dr. Jahn said.

"The TB of tomorrow comes from the tuberculin positives of today," he declared. Ninety-seven per cent of those exposed to proper chemo-therapy recover, he said.

New Skin Test Method

With the new system of skin testing and chest X-rays being worked out, Dr. Jahn said, it is not impossible to eradicate TB, but is expensive and the state organization needs much more money for it.

Private

Dr. Jahn is in private practice in Milwaukee and also is an assistant clinical professor of medicine in the Marquette University School of Medicine, a consultant on pulmonary diseases at the Veterans Hospital, Wood, and director of the pulmonary function laboratory in the Milwaukee hospital.

New president of the Outagamie County Tuberculosis Association is Miss Bernadine Reinhold, succeeding Mrs. Leonard Weis. Other new officers are Mrs. Don Herrling, vice president; Mrs. John Scherer, secretary; Al Stoegebauer, treasurer; and Mrs. Norbert Gerend, corresponding secretary.

Elected to the board were John Haugner, Dr. Paul Hodges, Mrs. William Borsum and Mrs. Herring of Appleton, Mrs. Beata Busse and Mrs. Gerend, Kaukauna; Mrs. Edward Hartjes, Combined Locks, and Mrs. Jack Hermesen, Little Chute.

Guests Welcomed

Mrs. Carl Anderson, vice-president, presented Kaukauna Mayor Joseph Bayorgeon, who welcomed the guests. He spoke of the late Dr. C. D. Boyd, who did much in work with TB years ago, and of the work of Dr. John Russo, director of Riverside Sanatorium and Hospital.

Christmas Seal campaign chairmen were presented. Stoegebauer gave the annual treasurer's report and told of his work of 32 years with the organization. In 1932, he reminisced, he and two others collected $397 in Appleton and surrounding areas. At that time, going to the sanatorium meant going to die, he said, but now going there almost surely brings recovery, and the amount collected in the seal sale now is more than 50 times as much.

Miss Lucille Lang, Appleton School nurse, and Mrs. Marion Freeman, county nurse, reported on skin-testing in their areas.

It was announced that in August the state anti-TB unit will come to the county for six weeks and following that, will be in Appleton for six weeks.

Mrs. Anderson introduced Leonard Weis who, in the absence of his wife due to illness, gave the president's annual report.

Safety Committee Considers Oneida Entrance for Prange's

A possible solution to traffic problems in the area of the H. C. Prange Co. parking ramp was outlined Wednesday night.

Although it took no action, the common council's public safety committee favored a plan to make the ramp entrance on Oneida Street and exit on Appleton Street.

Cars now enter the ramp from Appleton Street and leave by way of Washington Street.

For months, Prange officials have requested an opening on Oneida Street for outgoing traffic, but were denied by city officials.

Sidewalk Plans

The ramp problem was injected into the meeting when it was learned Prange plans to construct sidewalks around the structure in the near future and wanted to know where driveway openings should be.

Ald. Robert Stumpf (9th), committee chairman, said any action concerning driveways for the ramp would be tied in with the committee's decision on a proposal to ban parking on Oneida Street from Lawrence to Washington streets.

Police Chief Earl O. Wolff aired problems caused by the parking ramp.

"Usually on Fridays and Mondays we get calls from company officials asking us to help get cars out of the ramp via Washington Street," Wolff explained.

"I have told them that directing traffic in the ramp is not a police department function," Wolff said, "but we have been sending men to work traffic at the Washington-Appleton Street intersection."

Wolff said a company suggestion for a "squeeze" lane on Washington Street for cars leaving the ramp was not the answer.

Westbound Traffic

One of the main problems has been westbound traffic on Washington Street blocking the ramp exit, resulting in a backup of cars in the structure.

City Planner Walter Rasmussen said Prange officials prepared a plan which would put the entrance on Oneida Street and exit on Appleton, with the Washington Street exit to be discontinued.

Wolff said the plan appeared to be "a solution to the problem."

Rasmussen suggested it may be necessary to remove parking from the west side of Oneida Street if the plan is approved by the council.

The committee advised Prange officials to file the plan so it can be acted on at the next meeting.

The committee postponed action on a resolution which would grant certain city hall employees free parking in the municipal lot adjoining the building.

Parents Say No Sidewalks In 15th Ward Create Hazard

Delegation to Committee Meeting Says Children Must Walk in Street

Built-up areas lacking sidewalks on Appleton's northeast side force children to walk in streets, creating a safety hazard, a delegation of parents told the city council public safety committee Wednesday.

The delegation expressed concern over a board of education proposal, which would move to Edison School more than 100 children attending or scheduled to attend Huntley School.

Most of the objectors to the shift reside in the 15th Ward where Al C. Fischer is alderman-supervisor.

A spokesman for the parents, introduced by Fischer, asked if the committee could take some action to provide more safety for children who have to cross streets in the area of East Wisconsin Avenue (State 96).

'Order Sidewalks'

"There is something wrong when kids are chased out into the street because of the lack of sidewalks," commented Ald. Robert Stumpf (9th), committee chairman. "I think this is something we should look into."

Ald. Arthur Mueller (19th), who has been instrumental in getting blocks of new sidewalks constructed in his ward since becoming a councilman a year ago, told Fischer, "All you have to do is order the sidewalks in."

Fischer said he attempted to get persons to sign petitions for sidewalks sometime ago but there was opposition and he dropped the project.

"I think you should go ahead and order the sidewalks in because an alderman has that authority no matter how many remonstrances are received," Mueller added.

The committee directed the police department and traffic engineer to take a traffic count in the areas where the children have to cross streets, and said it would contact the State Highway Commission.

Menasha Police Begin Crackdown on Use of Bottle Rockets

MENASHA — Police officials here today announced they have begun a crackdown in the city against the use of "bottle rockets," a small rocket-like projectile resembling a firecracker on a short stick.

The bottle rockets are already blamed for one accident in which two persons were injured and several hundred dollars in damage was caused and one fire in the city.

Youngsters apparently are the ones involved in firing the bottle rockets, which get their name from the use of a bottle as a launching pad. When fired the miniature rockets soar up to 50 feet into the air, leaving a trail of fire and smoke. The actual projectile is approximately the same size as a cigarette on a small stick about eight inches long.

Police said today persons using the bottle rocket is face prosecution under the city's anti-fireworks law, which prohibits all fireworks with the exception of the common sparkler, which neither explodes nor propels itself.

Kaukauna Flier Reported Being Treated Well

Eugene DeBruin, Others Receiving Mail and Supplies

From Press Dispatches

VIENTIANNE, Laos — International Red Cross Representative Andre Durand said today he received assurances from Pathet Lao officials that five prisoners, including one American—Eugene DeBruin of Kaukauna—are well treated.

The information is the first direct word DeBruin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. DeBruin, route 3, Kaukauna, have received about their son's confinement since he was shot down by the communist Laotians on Sept. 5 while Eugene was on a mercy mission flight under the auspices of Air America to right-wing elements.

Durand said he also was told the five regularly receive packages including food, medical supplies and mail sent to them from Vientiane. However, he was not told when they will be released.

Visited Officials

Durand made the statement on his return Wednesday from the Pathet Lao headquarters at Khang Khay, where he met with Pathet Lao officials.

The other prisoners held with DeBruin are three Thai and one Nationalist Chinese from Hong Kong.

Tuesday the DeBruins received a letter from the International Committee of the Red Cross in Geneva, Switzerland, informing the family it had directed Durand to investigate the conditions under which Eugene was being held.

Mrs. DeBruin said today the letter had been the first communication they received from the International Red Cross.

Sought Help

When the rural Kaukauna family learned on Oct. 22 that their son was among the survivors of the plane crash they enlisted the aid of the United States State Department in an effort to effect Eugene's release.

Although the American ambassador to Laos was joined in his pleas to the Pathet Lao by the British and Soviet ambassadors, the Communist segment of the tri-party coalition in that troubled country refused to discuss the situation.

Until today, the DeBruins were not sure that their mail was being received by their son.

A report late last month from an escaped Laotian indicated that Eugene's captivity was filled with deprivations. At that time the family asked the Post-Crescent to try and enlist the help of the Associated Press in seeking more information about Eugene's condition.

Announce Changes in Appleton Postal Service

Action Part of President Johnson's, Gronouski's Department Economy Drive

Changes in Appleton postal service, in line with a March 10 economy directive to all post offices by Postmaster General John A. Gronouski, will affect some Wednesday parcel post deliveries and certain window services Saturdays, starting Monday, Postmaster Francis Sumnich said today.

The five contract postal stations in Appleton will be open Saturdays as usual. These stations are at Schlitz Drugs, 601 W. College Ave.; Sindahl's Paint and Hardware, 519 W. Wisconsin Ave.; Ideal Photo, 222 E. College Ave.; Hoffman Drugs, 219 S. Walter Ave., and W. T. Grant Co., Valley Fair.

Six-day parcel post service will be continued on all mounted, mailster and rural routes, but will be on a five-day basis on city delivery foot carrier routes with such service suspended Wednesdays, starting May 6.

Adjustments Possible

Businesses closed Saturdays and those which prefer no Saturday parcel deliveries will make possible adjustments in Saturday service. First class parcels, air parcel post and perishable articles will continue to be delivered six days a week.

Saturday changes at Appleton's general post office include consolidation of window services at one window location and limited generally to four hours, from 8 to 12 a.m. Domestic and international money orders will not be issued and rural carriers will not accept money order applications Saturdays. Postal savings business also will be suspended Saturdays at all first and second class offices.

No essential major services are affected under the economy order, Sumnich said. Remaining unchanged will be letter carrier home deliveries and special delivery service, regular business mail and first class mail deliveries and outgoing mail dispatches will continue without change.

Under President Johnson's economy program, the aim of the post office department is to save $12.7 million, according to Gronouski.

Fond du Lac Agrees Not to Annex Kiekhaefer Property

Council OKs Company Ultimatum

FOND DU LAC — The way was paved Wednesday for Kiekhaefer Corp. to build a multi-million dollar plant in the Town of Fond du Lac when the city council agreed not to attempt to annex the firm's property in the town.

At a special council meeting attended by an overflow crowd of 700 at Goodrich High School cafeteria, the council bowed to Kiekhaefer's demands.

A previous annexation by the city was ruled illegal by the Wisconsin Supreme Court.

E. C. Kiekhaefer recently sent the city an ultimatum that he would not build a new plant and would pull out if the city tried to annex his plant again. He wanted annexation immunity in writing, and received it.

Start Building

Armand Hauser, a company vice president, said the outboard motor manufacturing firm would immediately start construction of a new $1.8 million plant in the town next to the present factory.

Hauser read his statement before the six-member council voted on the resolution.

In taking its action, the council bowed to public pressure brought about by a series of newspaper advertisements by the Kiekhaefer Corp. and representatives of the business community.

The business group said Fond du Lac needed the Kiekhaefer plant to help bolster the city's weak industrial tax base, but at the same time feared the loss of an estimated 700 jobs if Kiekhaefer pulled out as threatened.

A spokesman for the Kiekhaefer Corp. said no decision has been made on what the firm intends to do with a 150-acre tract it purchased last fall in the Town of Nekimi in Winnebago County.

New Plant

When the land along U. S. 41 was purchased, town residents were told Kiekhaefer planned to construct a new plant there.

"It is too close on the heels of last night's favorable decision to decide what we will do with our other land holdings," the company spokesman said.

The Kiekhaefer expansion program in the Town of Fond du Lac will be in three phases and carried out over a four to five-year period, the spokesman said. There is speculation Kiekhaefer will consolidate all of his Wisconsin operations, including those in Cedarburg, Oshkosh and Beaver Dam, under one roof.

The Town of Fond du Lac plant is headquarters for the firm, a subsidiary of the Brunswick Corp.

Action taken by the council in Kiekhaefer's favor could trigger a taxpayer's suit.

Not Binding

Both sides agreed the resolution was not legally binding on either the present council or fu-answered away from the witness stand.

Krueger testified that he worked over 550 hours as a tractor operator while he was employed by Geiger. He testified he kept records of the hours he spent on the tractor. Testimony from other witnesses said the particular tractor Krueger operated required a high degree of skill and would not be one normally operated by unskilled labor.

Others Testify

Geiger presented other Fox River valley contractors who said that they often hired unskilled laborers and had them operate similar machines. One contractor said that if a person were able to drive a car, he could drive such a tractor.

Geiger testified he told Krueger of his pay scale and job classification as a common laborer when he was hired. Geiger also produced records of Krueger's hours which showed the hours he worked, but did not fully establish what types of work he was doing.

The jury is expected to return a verdict sometime this afternoon. It began deliberations about 9:30 a.m. after receiving instructions from Judge Keller.

Federal Employment Increased in March

WASHINGTON (AP) — In the news from Washington: Federal employment increased by 1,615 during March to a total of 2,470,045.

In reporting the figures, the joint congressional committee on reduction of nonessential federal expenditures said it was the first increase since last October.

The Defense Department made further civilian job cuts in March but several civilian agencies had increases.

ture councils, but Atty. Allan L. Edgarton, Kiekhaefer legal counsel, said Kiekhaefer was asking "only good faith and intent" on the city's part.

"Tomorrow you can go back on your word, but Kiekhaefer knows you won't," Edgarton said. "This city needs Kiekhaefer a lot more than Kiekhaefer needs Fond du Lac."

Neither Kiekhaefer nor City Mgr. Robert McManus made any comment. It appeared the council had finalized its decision at a meeting Tuesday after members were deluged with telephone calls from citizens expressing views.

The council maintained for months that it is illegal and contrary to policy to guarantee anyone that outlying property will never be annexed to the city.

Previous Claim

Since last week there has been a continuous "battle of advertisements" in the local newspaper between Kiekhaefer, some of his followers and the common council.

McManus and the council said it agreed to create a sanitary district to serve Kiekhaefer and provide other services as requested, but until Wednesday night would not go along with the precedent-setting annexation immunity.

Kiekhaefer claims he made an agreement with the city 18 years ago that it would not attempt to annex him. City officials said there is no record of such an agreement.

There is the possibility that another firm now in Fond du Lac may relocate in the Town of Fond du Lac when it builds a new plant. It has an option on land in the town just outside the city.

Appleton Man Named in Damage Suit

Woman Claims He Shook Her; Seeks $6,000 Award

An Appleton service station operator who complained to police that a West De Pere woman tried to run him down as she parked her car in his service station parking lot, has been named in a $6,000 damage suit in Circuit Court.

The service station operator, Stuart Elsner, 122 S. Oneida St., charged on Sept. 16 that a car driven by Miss Mary Ferris, 21, West De Pere, drove directly toward him in his parking lot. He claimed he had to jump out of the way to avoid being hit.

Appleton police arrested the woman and a charge of disorderly conduct has been filed against her. She faces a jury trial in July. Elsner is named as complainant in the police action.

Denies Charge

Miss Ferris, charging assault and battery, has asked $6,000 damages for injuries to herself by Elsner during the incident. Miss Ferris claims Elsner "shook her with great force, wounding and bruising her" and in the process she received "severe mental and physical pain." She also charges Elsner used abusive language.

Through his attorney, who expects to file an answer soon, Elsner has denied all charges.

Union's Founder Beaten at Polls

DENVER (AP) — Arnold S. Zander, 62, a founder and president since 1963, was defeated for re-election Wednesday as head of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees, a 220,000-member AFL-CIO union.

Jerry Wurf, 44, of New York, who challenged Zander once before, won by a vote of 1,450 to 1,429. Wurf has been executive director of District Council 37 representing New York City Municipal employees. The AFECME president's job pays $21,000 annually.

Gordon Chapman, incumbent secretary-treasurer who supported Wurf, was re-elected by a vote of 1,566 to 1,302 over William J. McEntee of Philadelphia, vice president of the executive board.

Of 11 vice presidents elected only one, Steve Clark of Madison, Wis., was not a supporter of the Wurf-Chapman ticket.

Congregations Complacent

The Rev. Dr. John Stensvaag, professor of Old Testament at Luther Theological Seminary, St. Paul, Minn., and former president of the Lutheran Free Church which merged with the American Lutheran Church in 1963, warned in his address, "Beyond Religion," that "we have somehow come to mistake religion for Christianity and we have been willing to settle for that."

He said congregations have become complacent, and Christians have been too satisfied with outward success.

The Rev. Dr. Stensvaag cited a need for "living congregations." He said signs of a living congregation are a personal relationship with Jesus Christ, a yielding and surrender to the call of God and knowledge of the Scriptures.

He said further signs of a "Living Church" are a group which reflects the love of God, a group which is a missionary force and a group that has come beyond religion, beyond the superficial empty forms.

The Rev. Dr. Theodore A. Ohlrogge, district president, adjourned the convention at noon today. The Rev. A. P. Anderson of Peshtigo led in closing devotions.

Twin City Sewage Project Delayed

$1.68 Million Plant Held Up For Four Months

NEENAH-MENASHA—A four-month delay in the start of construction of a $1.68 million secondary sewage treatment plant to serve the Twin Cities was announced this morning by officials of the Neenah-Menasha Sewage Commission.

Originally scheduled for July, construction start has been delayed until Nov. 1, 1964.

Officials said more study is needed before the new plant is constructed.

Ask Extension
A request to the federal government for an extension on a $505,950 grant is in the process. Officials said there is little worry the request for an extension won't be met.

Further testing of $23,000 pilot plant has partially contributed to the delay, according to Edward DenDooven, head of the commission.

DenDooven said, "Operation of the pilot plant has been continued for a longer than originally planned period as a means of thoroughly testing the operation under varied conditions of sludge, temperatures and flows. Results obtained from this pilot scale work have been satisfactory and it has been established that this type of operation will meet all requirements."

Work With State
"This work has been done in conjunction with the Wisconsin State Committee on Water Pollution, the State Board of Health and the Donahue Engineering Co., consulting engineers for the secondary plant."

"This prolonged pilot plant testing has delayed the finalization of plans and specifications for the new treatment plant. In addition, the testing of equipment for the flotation thickening of secondary plant sludge, and of various methods of de-watering both the primary and secondary solids, and contributed to the delay in completion of the final plans and specifications."

2 Twin City Drivers Hurt in Single Car Accidents in County

James A. Miller, 18, 633 Cleveland St., Neenah, received a knee injury when he lost control of the car he was driving while attempting to make a turn from State 150 onto County Trunk O and hit a tree. The accident happened at about 8:20 p.m. Wednesday.

1963 Chamber of Commerce Figure

NEENAH — The total assessed valuation of both Neenah and Menasha for 1963 is $167,427,340, according to statistical data released by the Chamber of Commerce of Neenah-Menasha today.

Of the total Twin Cities assessed valuation, Neenah accounts for $121,709,900 and Menasha accounts for $45,717,440, the report shows. The figures are based on local assessment totals, not equalized values.

This 1963 total compares to a 1953 total assessed valuation of $26,969,105, with Neenah taking $28,599,105 of the total and Menasha taking $34,370,000 of the total for 1953.

Earnings
The average weekly earnings for the 11,700 average industrial employment in the two cities, based on production workers, was $118.06 for 1963. This compares to a weekly average for an average of 8,698 employment in 1953 of $81.15, the report shows.

Bonded indebtedness for 1963 of the two cities totaled $10,944,000, with Menasha's total $3,475,000 and Neenah's $7,469,000. This compares to a 1953 total of $669,000 for the two cities, with Neenah's share at $644,000 and Menasha's at $25,000.

The tax rate for Menasha in 1963 was $40.07 per $1,000 compared to a 1953 rate of $25 per $1,000, while Neenah's rate in 1963 was $23.58 per $1,000 and in 1953 was $41 per $1,000. The reason for the drastic drop in the tax rate, according to R. V. Hauser, Neenah city clerk, was the re-assessment of the city in 1961-62. This re-assessment also brought up the assessment of the city to about full value, whereas previously the city had been assessed at about 30 per cent of full value.

Homes
A total of 45 new homes were built in Menasha during 1963, for a total value of about $604,000. Neenah saw a total of 110 new homes being built, for a total value of about $1,827,500.

Neenah electric customers totaled 6,472 and water customers totaled 5,782 in 1963, compared to 4,711 electric customers in 1953 and 4,329 water customers in the same year.

Menasha's total for 1963 for electric customers was 4,912, while the 1963 water customer total was 3,982. This compared to 4,178 electric customers and 3,304 water customers in 1953.

Postal receipts for both cities in 1963 were $1,551,101, compared to $573,959 in 1953.

Rusk, McNamara and Celebrezze

Laird on First Name, Dinner Guest Basis With Democrats in Cabinet

BY FRANCES MCKUSICK

WASHINGTON — Rep. Melvin R. Laird, R-Marshfield, who will be chairman of the platform committee for the Republican National Convention, enjoys a political philosophy which has put him on a first name, dinner guest basis with several cabinet members in the Johnson Administration, and furthermore, he makes no bones about it.

"You can be friendly with a person without agreeing with everything he says or does," smiled Laird, when asked about his apparent close association with top drawer Democrats.

"What's wrong with that?" The subject came up when a local (Washington) paper reported that Secretary of State Dean Rusk had "checked in" with Laird before leaving on his trip to Viet Nam a couple of weeks ago.

"Sure, the secretary called me at home the night he left about 8 o'clock," Laird said. "He just wanted me to know about a couple of things and fill me in on some others."

"Classified" Data Stressing that the "couple of things" Secretary Rusk talked about were "classified" information, and therefore could not be told, even in confidence, the Congressman also reported, with just a touch of smugness, that Rusk called him upon his return to Washington.

"I think it was nice of the secretary," Laird commented blandly. "He knows I want to keep in touch with world events."

The congressman's friendship with Labor Secretary W. Willard Wirtz is already known in Wisconsin. Laird brought Wirtz out to his district recently to discuss problems of the Department of Labor.

"Naturally, I don't always go along with Secretary Wirtz," Laird said, in a mastery of understatement, "but I think we should all know both sides of a story."

Then last week, he and Mrs. Laird dined with Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and Mrs. McNamara. He said this was a "purely social affair."

Disagrees With House "When I disagree with McNamara, I say so on the floor of the House, as I did when the discussion of the nuclear-powered aircraft carrier came up," Laird emphasized.

He added that when he agrees with the secretary, he goes to bat for him.

"But Mr. McNamara has been secretary of defense for only three years, and he is no expert on military or defense matters," Laird concluded flatly.

A member of the appropriations subcommittee on Health, Education and Welfare, Laird knows many topnotch men in that department, including eminent doctors in the national institutes of health.

Another Friend H.E.W. Secretary Anthony J. Celebrezze is a friend of Laird's as are many of his Democratic advisors including the former mayor of Madison, Ivan A. Nestingen, the under secretary of H.E.W.

And so it goes.

But one thing all of Laird's friends acknowledge: his association with administration

Democrats hasn't worn off on would show the Badger State him, for there is not even a bit of microscopic evidence which publican. Period.

City Committee Rejects Appleton Junk License Bid

A bid by A. Brudnick, 609 S. Bound St. for a junk dealer's license has been denied by the council's ordinance committee.

When the application came before the committee, it prompted Ald Richard Huisman (1st) to comment, "This man is already a junk dealer and has been operating without a license."

"He (Brudnick) is selling and buying junk," Huisman said. "I've heard his radio commercials in the morning."

Brudnick's was the first 1964 license application denied by the committee. There are other junk dealers who recently received a warning if they did not improve operations, their licenses would not be renewed.

After rejecting Brudnick's application, the committee admitted it did not know who would

Barry Says U. S. Is in A True War

Cites Handling of Poverty, Viet Nam By Administration

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater, in a hurried campaign stopover before flying to Washington, D.C., says he feels the United States is truly at war—both in South Viet Nam and against poverty. And, he adds, he doesn't like the Johnson administration's handling of either battle.

The Arizona Republican said Wednesday the United States faces "slow defeat" in Southeast Asia unless a more aggressive strategy is employed, leading to the cutting off of Communist supplies and the destruction of rice and opium crops in North Viet Nam.

Federal Handout
As for the President's war on poverty, Goldwater called it a "Santa Claus of the government handout."

Goldwater, seeking the Republican presidential nomination, wound up his one-day Southern California campaign in Los Angeles County with a Republican rally in San Fernando Valley Wednesday night.

Goldwater said his toughest strategy in Viet Nam would not involve bombing Vietnamese, or Vietnamese cities.

Supply Routes
"It could mean messing up some roads, hitting some depots, and stopping some shipping," Goldwater added. "This means threatening or actually interdicting the supply routes from Red China, Laos, and Cambodia."

Goldwater said North Viet Nam rice crops could be destroyed, as well as the opium crop "upon which North Viet Nam bases a good part of its foreign exchange."

He did not say whether he recommended the use of U.S. forces in this action.

College Students Do Their Good Deeds Every Weekend

HYDEN, Ky. (AP) — Like knights of old, college students sally forth each weekend to help the distressed mountain folk of eastern Kentucky.

Instead of armor, they wear sweat shirts and blue jeans. They carry hammers and nails, and bring, among other things, big sheets of wallboard.

The students call themselves the Appalachian Volunteers, a loosely knit group from 19 colleges who want to do their bit to help.

"We don't have any membership as such. No one carries any kind of membership card," Milton Ogle, director of the group, said.

100 Students
But what began as a spark with four students three months ago has fanned into a flame involving more than 100 students working on six to eight projects every Saturday.

As a starter, the group decided to work on some of the 1,644 one-room schools in eastern Kentucky, many of them sorely in need of repair. They have organized recreation and health education at some of the schools.

"It's sort of a people-to-people program," Ogle said. The volunteers go only to communities where local residents will pitch in and help.

$50,000 Grant
A $50,000 grant from the Federal Area Redevelopment Administration and donations from private individuals and firms finance the project. The grant is earmarked for salaries. Private donations buy materials.

The students receive only gasoline money and lunch. The decision on which schools will be worked upon, Ogle said, is made on the answers to these questions:

1. Will the school be eliminated through consolidation within one year? If so, no work.
2. Is the school genuinely in need of repair?
3. Is it reasonably close to the campus from which the volunteers will come.
4. Are the county school board and local residents willing to cooperate?

If the answers to the last three questions are yes, then the volunteers try to work it into their schedule.

Renk Cites Administration High Spending

Charges Figures of Budget Juggled to Give Rosy Picture

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Wilbur Renk, a candidate for the Republican nomination for U. S. senator, said Wednesday that the Democratic national administration is spending $43 million more a day than was spent in the Eisenhower administration.

Democratic spokesmen "talk a lot about economy but the facts add up to big spending," Renk told the Jamesville Republican Women's Club.

The national budget figures, Renk said, "are being juggled to make a bad financial picture look rosy, and 'paper' reductions are being made in the federal payroll. After three years of Democratic administration we have a new record high national budget."

Dominic Frinzi, a Milwaukee attorney, said Wednesday night he plans to "stump the state" in his campaign to win the Democratic nomination for governor.

Make Trouble
He brushed aside reports that he was in the race to make trouble for Democratic Gov. John W. Reynolds, who has not officially announced for re-election.

"This is not a personal matter with Reynolds and myself," Frinzi said in an interview. "I am going to run on a positive, aggressive basis. The issues will unfold as my campaign develops."

Frinzi said he planned to open a headquarters in Milwaukee this week and was forming a statewide campaign committee. He said he would turn his criminal law practice over to associates during the campaign.

Couple Stabbed In Their Store By 8 Teen-Agers

NEW YORK (AP) — Three youths were arrested today in a Harlem store incident in which a woman was knifed to death and her husband critically stabbed.

Police said one of eight Negro teen-agers who entered the couple's second-hand clothing store Wednesday stabbed the couple. The youths were described as between 14 and 19 years old.

Magit Sugar, 45, was killed by a single thrust in the heart with a dirk. Her husband, Frank, 50, wrested the knife from the killer, but was stabbed six times in doing so.

Disappear in Crowd
The teen-agers disappeared in the late afternoon crowd on busy 125th Street just off Fifth Avenue.

Today police booked three youths on charges of felonious assault in Sugar's stabbing. They are Ronald Felder, 18; Walter Thooas, 18; and Willie Craig, 17.

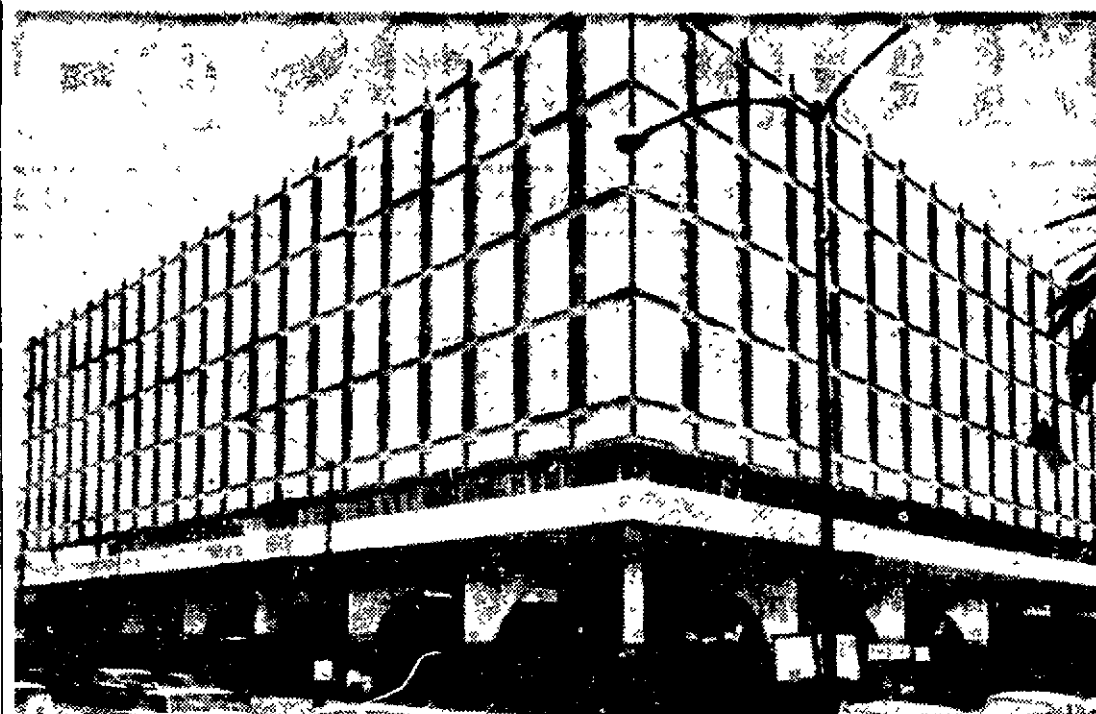

All denied any part in the attack. Police said the stabbings were apparently "senseless." If robbery was the youths' motive, they failed. There was no cash register in the store and Sugar's wallet was not taken.

Sugar was taken to Harlem Hospital in critical condition, but was reported to have improved after blood transfusions.

The Sugars, who came here as refugees from the 1956 Hungarian revolt, had operated the second-hand clothing store since 1960.

FAT OVERWEIGHT

Available to you without a doctor's prescription, the ODRINEX plan. You must lose ugly fat or your money back. One of the basic problems of losing weight is your inability to stick to a planned diet. The ODRINEX plan contains a tiny tablet and is easily swallowed. When you take ODRINEX, you simply don't have the urge for extra portions because ODRINEX depresses your appetite and decreases your desire for food thus making it easier and more comfortable for you to diet. Your weight must come down because as your own doctor will tell you, when you eat less, you weigh less. Get rid of excess fat and live longer. Of course ODRINEX can't do all the work for you alone. But if you really want to cut down on your eating and lose weight ODRINEX can be a powerful helper. The ODRINEX plan costs $3.00 and is sold on this guarantee: If not satisfied for any reason just return the package to your druggist and get your full money back. No questions asked. Viet Cong Kills 11 in Ambush SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Communist guerrillas killed six women and five children in a bloody ambush in central Viet Nam last weekend, American sources reported today. Twenty-one women were wounded.

Two American special forces men who helped fight off the knife-wielding Viet Cong have been recommended for the Silver Star, the sources said.

Special Forces
A three-truck convoy was moving from An Khe to the special forces camp of Plei Ta Nangle in Binh Dinh Province when it was stopped by heavy machine-gun fire.

Traveling in the trucks were a few Vietnamese special forces men, the two Americans and about 40 women and children.

The Viet Cong rushed the vehicles, brandishing pistols and knives. A Vietnamese sergeant-major, his wife and two children were slain in the front seat of the lead truck.

Civilian Tailor
Passengers in the backs of the trucks cowered as the guerrillas leaped among them, demanding to know who they were.

One man said he was a civilian tailor at Plei Ta Nangle camp. He was spared. But the guerrillas slaughtered a man who said he was the camp cook.

Several of the Vietnamese troops also were killed or wounded.

The two Americans were traveling in the second truck and kept the Viet Cong off for some time by firing at them.

National Conference To Honor Four Men At Milwaukee Dinner

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Four men, including a Racine business figure, will be honored by the Wisconsin region of the National Conference of Christians and Jews at the organization's annual dinner June 4 in Milwaukee.

They are Howard M. Packard, president of S.C. Johnson & Son, Inc., of Racine, who is a Methodist; Humphrey E. Desmond of Milwaukee, a Roman Catholic, who is publisher of the Milwaukee Catholic Herald Citizen; Circuit Court Judge Ronald A. Drechsler, of Milwaukee, a Lutheran, and Milwaukee attorney Benjamin F. Saltzstein, a Jew.

The dinner will observe the 25th anniversary of the Wisconsin unit of the organization.

A Jolly Group

Be Kind to Fat People Day Should be Held

BY HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Isn't it about time we had a Be Kind to Fat People Day in this country?

Early next month Americans will celebrate the golden anniversary of national Be Kind to Animals Week.

Animals have done much to lighten and brighten and entertain the human journey. But so have fat people.

Yet one group is appreciated and the other group is not. Laws protect animals. No legislation exists to protect fat people. You can tease, abuse and torment fat people mercilessly, and a policeman will simply look the other way—or join in the laughter.

Public Relations
This is because animals have better public relations. They have a powerful lobby working for them in Washington. The fat man has no such lobby.

Amateur psychologists tell the fat man his avoirdupois is a sign of emotional insecurity. Pretty girls pat his tummy, but prefer to marry some reed-shaped male oaf because he is more agile on a dance floor, or fits better into a tiny sports car.

Corporations hesitate to give the fat man executive promotion because he is held to be a poor health risk. Under this theory Benjamin Franklin, a man who never counted his calories but lived well into his 80s, would have spent his life as an underpaid code clerk in the U.S. State Department.

Fat Man
Throughout history, the fat man has served as a symbol of jollity, plenty and dignity, a symbol of mankind's victory over one of its arch enemies—hunger.

Would any of us, child or adult love Santa Claus any better if he went on a diet and wound up with a figure like that of Cary Grant?

The fat man is usually good-natured and rarely picks a quarrel because he needs his energy for more useful purposes. On the other hand he won't run away from a fight. He can't. At best he only waddles away.

Consumer Economy
In the consumer economy upon which American civilization must thrive or die, the fat man is our foremost patriot. It takes more cloth to make him a suit, more leather to make his shoes,

President Reported as Willing to Okay Some Changes in Civil Rights

Wants Senate to Produce Enforceable Legislation

BY ERNEST B. VACCARO
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson will accept some changes in the civil rights bill as long as the Senate produces enforceable legislation, Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey said today. Humphrey, assistant Senate Democratic leader who is floor manager for the measure, said Johnson prefers the House-passed bill as it stands. But, he added, the President is not against amendments that do not weaken it.

Humphrey told this to a reporter as the Senate headed into its 44th day of debate. The civil rights leaders apparently are determined to move to shut off debate next week on a pending compromise jury trial amendment unless Southern opponents agree to a fixed time for voting on it.

Bill's Supporters
Humphrey, apparently more optimistic than some other supporters of the bill, doubts it will be necessary to file a cloture petition to break down Southern resistance.

"If we have to file, we'll file it on Monday," the Minnesotaan said. "We have the votes for cloture. I doubt if we'll have to."

Cloture is the Senate's procedure for choking off a filibuster. To invoke it requires two-thirds of the senators on hand, or 67 if all 100 are present.

Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., chief strategist for Southern opponents of the bill, reported after a caucus Wednesday that they declined to agree on a time for voting on the jury trial amendment.

Democratic Sponsor
Sponsored by Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana and Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois as a substitute for a proposal by Sen. Herman E. Talmadge, D-Ga., it would provide jury trials in all criminal contempt citations that involved sentences of more than 30 days and fines above $300.

Russell told reporters and then informed Dirksen that the Southerners did not rule out a vote next week, but said "we are not going to make any commitments now." Dirksen had insisted on some word from the Dixie forces Wednesday.

Immediately afterward, Dirksen and Mansfield conferred and Dirksen announced, "It would appear that our only out is a cloture petition."

Historical Society Offers Group Rates for Site Tours

Greater opportunity for educational historic sightseeing is being offered this year by the State Historical Society of Wisconsin.

The society has established special reduced rates for group tours by both adults and children at its historic sites. Villa Louis at Prairie du Chien, Stonefield at Cassville and Old Wade House at Greenbush open for the 1964 season May 1.

Conducted Tours

Adult groups of 24 or more people such as study and service clubs will be able to tour each of the sites for 60 cents per person, rather than the regular 90 cent charge. The Society announced. Children in educational groups will pay 15 cents per child rather than the regular 25 cent fee and their teacher, scoutmaster or adult leader will be admitted free. The special rates are offered weekdays throughout the season.

Guides who conduct the tours plan their lectures to match the age and special interests of the groups, the Society said. Women's groups are usually interested in the early American furniture of Old Wade House, the lavish Victorian settings of Villa Louis and the hat shop, general store, school and church at Stonefield. Men, on the other hand, may be interested in the blacksmith shop or the old tavern at Wade House, the Indian-fur trader-explorer background of Villa Louis, and the craft and trade shops of the 1890 village at Stonefield. Children see many things at all sites which they can associate with the modern way of life and the history lessons they have learned in school.

The Society also offers a family plan tour opportunity for its members. A family membership in the Society will admit all members of a family to all sites operated by the Society in addition to other membership advantages and benefits.

The sites are open seven days a week, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

State Colleges Plan Summer Teacher Courses

MADISON (AP)—Wisconsin's nine state colleges plan to offer summer courses for teachers in safety and driver education.

The college central office said Tuesday that similar courses for teachers also will be offered during the summer by the University of Wisconsin in Milwaukee and Madison and by St. Norbert College in De Pere and Northland College in Ashland.

The State Department of Public Instruction requires teachers to complete six semester hours of driver and safety education in order to be certified to teach would-be drivers in high schools. Wisconsin law provides up to $25 per pupil to high schools and vocational schools offering approved classroom and behind the wheel driver education.

Let's EXPLORE YOUR MIND

By Sylvanus M. Duvall, Ph.D. and Evelyn M. Duvall, Ph.D.

IS THERE A DIFFERENCE BETWEEN A CYNIC AND A SKEPTIC? YES ☐ NO ☐

Definitely. Psychologically speaking, they are exact opposites. The cynic is credulous and glibly about believing anything bad. The skeptic wants evidence, whether it's good or bad. The cynic has a blind faith in the reality of evil and the non-existence of good while the skeptic has an intelligent faith that will enable him to recognize the existence of both good and evil. The cynic is blindly emotional, both in his beliefs and his beliefs. The skeptic is intelligent about both his feelings and his thinking.

What do wives dislike most? Cleaning—Ironing—

Ironing, by a wide margin. The recent Gallup poll found that of all the household tasks that women dislike, ironing heads the list. The typical home has plenty of equipment, but someone must push the iron. As one housewife puts it, "I'd rather scrub floors than iron, and in fact I often do. My idea of being rich is to send out all the clothes." Do as is done at our house: iron at the time of your favorite mystery program on television. Then you get so caught up in the suspense, that

Planning for Retirement Is New Role in Education Field

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
There are 17 million people today in the United States who are 65 years of age or over. By 1970, it has been estimated persons over 65 will increase to well over 20 million. Wisconsin and the nation need to tool up to meet the need.

Senior citizens centers are growing throughout the country. Unions are recognizing a responsibility to the older person who has done his share in production. Progressive companies put special emphasis on pre-retirement planning and welfare funds for their employees. A pilot project was co-sponsored by the University of Wisconsin and two Racine firms.

Specialists discussed such topics as "Where shall we live after retirement?", "What community resources are available to the retiree?", and "What should I know about budgeting and investments?". The program was well received, and a similar class was later opened to the public.

Retirement Course
Marquette University has had a program on preparing for retirement, organized by Brother Leo Ryan, Director of Continuing Education. Discussion programs have been held by YMCA chapters on pre-retirement planning.

Many skills are being wasted. We are told that one-fifth of the aged have an annual income of between $1,000 and $2,000, 9 million are receiving less than $1,000 per year. In many companies retirement at age 65 is mandatory, and most communities have very limited opportunities for part-time employment. We must face up to this problem.

Most agencies of adult education have now resolved the dilemma "Shall we set up a special program for the older adult?" I have talked with many senior citizens and my impression is that they would prefer to take part in regular classes, activities of a center, library, or vocational adult school, rather than be separated. One of the programs I work with has an adult student, doing oil painting at 78. And he is mastering the skills of the art. It should be remembered that some of the great scientists and philosophers

Ald. Stillings Picked for City Personnel Unit

Welfare-Ordinance Asks Reappointment Of Veteran Member

Ald. Mrs. Dorothy O. Stillings (7th) has been recommended for reappointment to the city's personnel committee.

The action was taken by the welfare - ordinance committee which annually appoints one of its members to serve on the personnel body.

"We won't find a better member for the personnel committee than Dorothy Stillings," said Ald. Richard Huisman (1st) in making the nomination.

Mayor Clarence Mitchell said Mrs. Stillings told him recently she would continue to serve if reappointed.

Mrs. Stillings, hospitalized for a week, has been advised by her physician to cut down on municipal duties. During the coming year she will serve on the plan commission, welfare-ordinance and the personnel committees.

The personnel committee will meet next week to reorganize Mayor Mitchell has recommended another citizen member be appointed to the group to represent labor.

The personnel committee came in for criticism from Huisman concerning its dealings with Teamsters Local 563. The union and committee have not agreed on a 1964 contract and will enter into fact-finding soon.

Work Rules
Until a contract is signed, the city has adopted a special set of work rules. Not included was the procedure of the past in which the city handled the dues checkoff for the union.

Robert Schlieve, secretary-treasurer of Local 563, sent a letter of protest to the city last week and threatened court action if it did not resume the checkoff.

Complaints Fatal For City's Bears

CORVALLIS, Ore. (AP)—The city solved the problem of how to stop complaints that three bears in the city park were being treated inhumanely.

The bears were shot.

The bears had lived in a concrete-lined pit 20 feet deep and 35 feet wide for six years, since they were cubs. Some local citizens complained that it was cruel to make the bears live there.

City Manager John Porter said if the bears were turned loose they could not survive in the wilds because they had no experience there. So he ordered them knocked out with a tranquilizer and then killed by a rifle shot Tuesday.

Porter said other zoos in Oregon were not interested in taking the bears.

Hassler referred Schlieve's letter to the personnel committee.

New Foreclosure Faces Attorney Owning Beer Bar

FOND DU LAC—Atty. Peter Porath, president of the corporation operating the Starlite Club minor bar in the Town of Fond-du Lac, has been hit by his second foreclosure of the week.

Foreclosure of Porath's law office was ordered by Circuit Judge R. E. Hanson after the owner of the law office building, Joseph Gussow, started legal action.

Earlier in the week the owners of the Starlite Club property, purchased by Porath and associates on a land contract, started foreclosure proceedings. Porath was given until Friday to make a full report on his finances to the court.

Porath and the Starlite have been in the news since March when he converted the tavern into a minor bar in defiance of town board policy.

IS YOUR DOG A YANKEE FAN?

Or does he want to break up the Yankees? He can't tell you because he can't talk. Right? Which is troublesome. Because if you're not feeding him properly, he can't talk to you about that either.

Feed him Rival though, and talk isn't needed. Inside every can of Rival is every last thing a dog needs. Meat, vitamins, minerals, proteins, nutrients, the works. Regular beef or liver flavor. Feed him nothing but Rival and you'll have a healthy, happy dog no matter who wins the pennant.

"Remember . . . easy does it," cautions Scout Perri Ducklow, left, Troop 31, to recipe checker Judy Uehlein and Ann Beyer, who is easing the lasagna noodles into boiling water. These Cadet Girl Scouts, working on their advanced Chef merit badge, have chosen international cookery and baking with yeast as two major projects. This team prepared the Italian dish, Lasagna al Forno. Another team from the same troop prepared Oriental Peanut Pork. (Post-Crescent Photos)

BY LILLIAN MACKESY
Post-Crescent Food Editor

Many Appleton Girl Scouts are discovering new worlds in cooking these days . . . some for the very first time while others as more experienced hands are venturing into the field of creative cookery and foreign foods. Whether it's the ABCs of measuring they're learning or how to make a just-so Italian lasagna dish, they all are having fun in the new Wisconsin Michigan Power Company kitchens.

The girls . . . both junior Scouts working on their Cook Badge and Cadet Scouts earning their advanced Chef badge . . . have been meeting once a week in the power firm's kitchens since February. Seven troops already have finished the food preparation requirements for their respective badges and members from seven other troops now are working on theirs. The girls meet for three successive weeks with Home Economist Mary-Beth Kuester for sessions of one and one-half hours each to fulfill the cooking, baking and allied requirements for the badges.

The other work which must be accomplished before the badge is earned is done under the supervision of troop leaders and their assistants.

Junior Scouts first learn how to measure properly. Then they get acquainted with kitchen equipment, learn how to operate stove, oven and dishwasher (which they enjoy using after their real cooking sessions get underway). Then they learn about fruit and milk desserts by preparing them. Working in small groups, they make a cornstarch custard from scratch . . . prepare another with a pudding mix . . . and make a third type with the "instant" variety of pudding mix.

The three types of pudding desserts are compared as to cost, time of preparation, nutrition and quality. One of the big moments for these younger girls is when they prepare Apple Snow all by themselves from peeling the apples to folding in the briskly beaten egg whites. In a baking session, these girls also make a two-egg cake or muffins, again using one recipe from scratch and the mix. Again, they compare the two varieties for flavor, texture, height and cost.

Since the older girls, the Caddets of junior high schoolage, already have their Cook badges, their stints in the kitchens comprise more advanced work. Each group makes a choice of projects such as baking, international dishes or maybe regional foods.

Here are the recipes from the current batch of Scouts they make excellent suggestions for a file, either as a basic recipe or

Exercise, to Teach Her Own

A mature lovely writes: I am not over-weight, but my figure is getting out of shape. And from what I read, exercise is the only remedy. How should I start?

The Answer: If you have not you a feeling of well-being. The long-term results—improved figure proportions, nerves and vitality—are even more satisfying. For mature women, the most agreeable forms of exercise follow:

Swimming, walking biking, golfing: If you decide on biking or swimming, be ready to give at least three half-hour periods to it each week. An adequate walking program is two miles, five days weekly. Twice weekly for golf.

Gym or ballet classes: Both are fun, as modern methods emphasize rhythmical movements rather than grinding routines. Minimum attendance, twice weekly.

Home Program: A "daily dozen" need not be boring. The good figures, so produced, are anything but dull!

You can diet until you become feather-light and still be hip-heavy. Reduction in the hip-line is assured only by exercise. For a set of quick and effective ones, send for my leaflet, Hip Reducing Routines. Write Mary Sue Miller in care

Here Are the Four Wonderful Greek foods adapted to American cookery. Two of the dishes use the Greek pastry known as phyllo. This wafer-thin pastry which takes infinite care in preparation is available by mail from Greek bakeries or supply houses in metropolitan areas. In the foreground is an eggplant and potato casserole called Mousaka. Macaroni Pie or Pastistio with its crispy phyllo crust is behind the Mousaka and to the left the magnificent and famous Baklava pastry is flanked by smaller tea cookies. The beads in the picture are typical of the ones placed on tables in Greek coffee houses. Instead of doodling on the tablecloths, customers finger the beads.

Greek Cuisine Among World's Finest

One of the most bountiful and fascinating cuisines in the world is Greek cookery and, since Sunday marks the orthodox Easter for many Fox Valley residents, we offer this excellent collection of adapted, tested recipes. They were developed in the Best Foods kitchen in New York City with the guidance of a young Greek girl who learned the ABCs of Greek cookery from her grandmother who still cooks in the robust, spicy Greek style.

The phyllo . . . pronounced "fello" . . . pastry sheets called for in some of the recipes are available at Greek bakeries and in frozen food departments of specialty shops. In working with the phyllo, it is important to keep the paper-thin pastry leaves from drying out. The best way to do this is to keep them covered between uses with a slightly dampened towel. Any leftover phyllo may be frozen for future use.

In some of the recipes, corn syrup replaces the traditional sugar and water syrup usually prepared in the home. In other recipes, corn oil replaces the old world olive oil, as is done in many modern Greek homes in America.

Frontier Look In Men's Styles

The "LBJ" hat, a smaller version of the old Texas 10-gallon chapeau, is getting lots of attention throughout the country, and is expected to become a popular hat style by fall.

Will the influence of President Lyndon B. Johnson affect our styles? Frontier-type pants fit into the current "slim look" picture, and some of the high-rise shoes approach the appearance of cowboy boots.

Some custom tailors have even made a few western-styled tuxedos, like those that Tom Mix and Roy Rogers always wore! And there's no partisan significance to the trend, for Senator Goldwater is just as "Western" as is the president.

fluffy. Add vanilla, stirring in thoroughly.

To the creamed mixture, add flour mixture and milk alternately in three or four portions, beating after each addition. Start and end with flour mixture.

Butter sides of two 8-inch square pans and line bottoms with waxed paper squares. Pour cake batter into two pans. Bake at 350 degrees until cake tests done, between 25 to 30 minutes.

Cakes may be layered, frosted, powdered with sugar or served plain with a pudding or fruit.

Shutout
Bid Clue
To 'Key'

An opening bid of three or four will often give the opponents great trouble during the auction, but it may help them during the play. They can trade on the fact that your shutout bid shows less than the value of an ordinary opening bid.

When this hand was played some years ago in an international match, a French player opened with three hearts on the West hand. This bid backfired when Boris Schapiro, playing for England, located all of the key cards.

West opened and continued diamonds. South ruffed the second diamond and drew two rounds of trumps. Then he concentrated on locating the king of clubs.

If West held the king of clubs, declarer could lead a club toward dummy's queen to limit the club loss to one trick. If East held the king of clubs, an end-play would be necessary to limit the club loss.

Since the two lines of play were very different, South had to work out in his mind which opponent had the king of clubs. Then, and only then, he could proceed with the play.

Tests Hearts
Schapiro had already learned that West held the ace of diamonds. He decided to test the hearts to find out about the heart strength. With this in mind, he led a low heart toward dummy after drawing trumps.

West naturally put up the queen of hearts to prevent dummy from winning with the ten. This made it clear that West had started with the K-Q of hearts. West could not also hold the king of clubs for then he would have opened with one heart instead of three hearts.

Having located the king of clubs declarer took dummy's ace of hearts and led the queen of diamonds from dummy. East covered with the king, and declarer discarded a club.

East won the trick but could not get out safely. If East led a diamond, South would discard a club while dummy ruffed; and if East instead led a club, ends; cover with damp towel, if necessary while working. Brush bottom and sides of baking pan with butter.

Arrange one sheet phyllo in pan, overlapping all four sides. Brush lightly with butter. Fold pastry in to fit pan; brush edges. Trim ends of pastry and layer six more sheets, brushing each with butter.

Spread with layer of nut mixture. Continue layering, brushing each sheet with butter, with four sheets of pastry until all phyllo and nut mixtures are used, ending with five sheets of phyllo for crust.

Fold sides of last sheet under; brush again. Make three lengthwise cuts halfway to bottom of pan, then cut each diagonally halfway to bottom, making cuts about two inches apart, to form diamond pattern.

Bake in 400-degree oven 15 minutes then reset oven temperature control to 350 degrees; continue baking one hour. Pour hot syrup over hot baked Baklava. Let stand at least 24 hours. (Does not require refrigeration.) Recipe makes about four pounds. Note: Grind nuts in hand grater or chop with knife. A meat grinder presses out the oil.

SYRUP FOR BAKLAVA

2 cups sugar
1½ cups water
1½ cups light corn syrup
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1 stick cinnamon
Combine sugar, water, syrup, lemon juice and cinnamon in 3-quart saucepan. Bring mixture to boil. Stir constantly while boiling for 15 minutes. Remove cinnamon and serve.

GREEK TEA COOKIES

¾ cup sifted flour
1½ teaspoons baking powder
¼ teaspoon salt
2 egg yolks
¾ cup sugar
½ cup corn oil
2 tablespoons orange juice
1 teaspoon vanilla
¾ cup milk
2 egg whites

1 egg
2 tablespoons water
¼ cup sesame seeds
Sift flour, baking powder and salt together; set aside. Beat egg yolks in mixing bowl until thick and lemon colored. Gradually add sugar, beating until fluffy. Beat in corn oil alternately with orange juice. Add vanilla.

Mix in 1½ cups sifted dry ingredients alternately with milk. Beat egg whites until stiff but not dry, then fold into batter. Fold in remaining sifted dry ingredients.

Gently knead on lightly floured board about two minutes. Divide dough into four parts. Shape each part as directed below.

Beat egg and water together. Brush on cookies. Sprinkle cookies with sesame seeds. Place on ungreased cookie sheet. Bake in 350-degree oven until browned, about 15 minutes. Recipe makes about 3½ dozen medium cookies.

Boats: Pinch off rounded half teaspoonfuls of dough. Roll on lightly floured board with palms of hands to form ropes 2¼ inches long. Place three ropes side by side; pinch ends together.

Curlicues: Pinch off rounded tablespoonfuls of dough. Roll on lightly floured boards with palms of hands to form ropes 8 inches long. Curl ends of rope turning each end in an opposite direction until the curls meet in the center.

Zigzags: Pinch off rounded tablespoonfuls of dough. Roll on lightly floured board with palms of hands to form ropes 8 inches long. Turn each rope back and forth to form zigzag shape.

Braids: Pinch off rounded half teaspoonfuls of dough. Roll on lightly floured board with palms of hands to form ropes 3 inches long. Pinch three ropes together at one end. Braid, then pinch loose ends together.

Relatives Demand Change in Phone Answering 'Service'

BY ANN LANDERS

DEAR ANN LANDERS: My husband's 22-year-old brother got out of the service three weeks ago. Vernon is staying with us until he finds a job. I have just about decided that if he doesn't go to work within two weeks I am going to work because I can't stand him around much longer.

If you can tell me what to do about just one of Vernon's habits I will be grateful. My husband says I have no sense of humor. I say his brother is a jerk.

Vernon answers our telephone with "Mazie's House of Pleasure" or "State Mental Hospital, Give to Mental Health or I'll kill you." Sometimes he says, "Penn's Bookie Joint" or "St. Patrick's Cathedral, the Cardinal speaking." Our friends and relatives are complaining that this nut shakes them up with his crazy jokes.

The last time Vernon did this, the Baptist minister was on the phone. He didn't think it was very funny. Am I wrong?—Brink of War

Dear Brink: Since your husband doesn't seem to have any better taste than his brother it's up to you to tell the clown to let the phone ring unless he can answer it properly. And let him know in plain language that you mean business.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: A lot of knot-head husbands who wouldn't think of reading a book on psychology read your column every day. Without realizing it you are educating a great many people—even those who insist at the top of their lungs that they are reading you for laughs.

Will you please say a few words about menopause?

I am 47 years old. (Everyone who writes to you says "I look younger.") Well, not me. I LOOK OLDER. For the past two years I've had hot flashes and sinking spells. During supper I will say, "Joe, open the window. I'm burning up." Twenty minutes later I'll say, "Joe, close the window. I'm freezing." He tells me I am imaging things and that I am off my rocker.

Will you please print in your column that this is part of "the change," or the menopause? Thank you, in behalf of millions of suffering women who are also married to clods.—28 Years of Service thetic husband can do a great deal to help a woman over this difficult time of her life.

A visit with a doctor can also help. Today there is medication available which can alleviate much of the old-fashioned discomfort. I hope you will look into it.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Am I a freak because I don't want a great big, flashy engagement ring? My mother says I ought to have my head examined. My older sister said if I don't get one so long as I live. Frankly, I'd much rather have some paid-for furniture than a $1,000 diamond ring.

I hope you will print my letter and say something in support of my ideas. Most of the people I have talked to look at me as if I have holes in my head when they ask to see my engagement ring and I tell them I didn't want one. Thank you.—Ringless

Dear Ringless: Congratulations. In this day and age when so many young girls are hunting for husbands with a Gieger counter it's refreshing to hear from a girl who is not interested in blinding her friends with the Hope diamond.

Stick to your guns, Buttercup, and don't feel that you must make excuses. The only ring that really matters is the plain gold band.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Pair Weds In Double Ring Rite

Honeymooning in northern Wisconsin are Miss Barbara Ann Hooyman and Ronald Van Rossum. The couple exchanged nuptial vows at 10 a.m. Wednesday at St. Nicholas Catholic Church, Freedom. The Rev. Alfred Hietpas officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hooyman, route 4, Appleton. Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Van Rossum, route 1, Kaukauna, are parents of the bridegroom.

Serving her sister as matron of honor was Mrs. James Huss. Miss Linda Hooyman and Mrs. Roger Dercks were bridesmaids.

James Huss acted as best man. Groomsmen were Gene Van Rossum and Roger Dercks. James Maass and Wayne Grode ushered.

A wedding reception took place at the Swan Club, DePere. Mrs. Van Rossum is employed at Appleton State Bank. Her husband is employed at Don Van Rossum Masonry. The couple will live at route 4, Appleton.

Fun Hats for Men

The so-called "fun hats" for young men are cropping up all over the country. In a wide variety of shapes and trims, they are seen on the beaches, on golf courses and in sport cars. (And they've made a big dent in the hatless habit!)

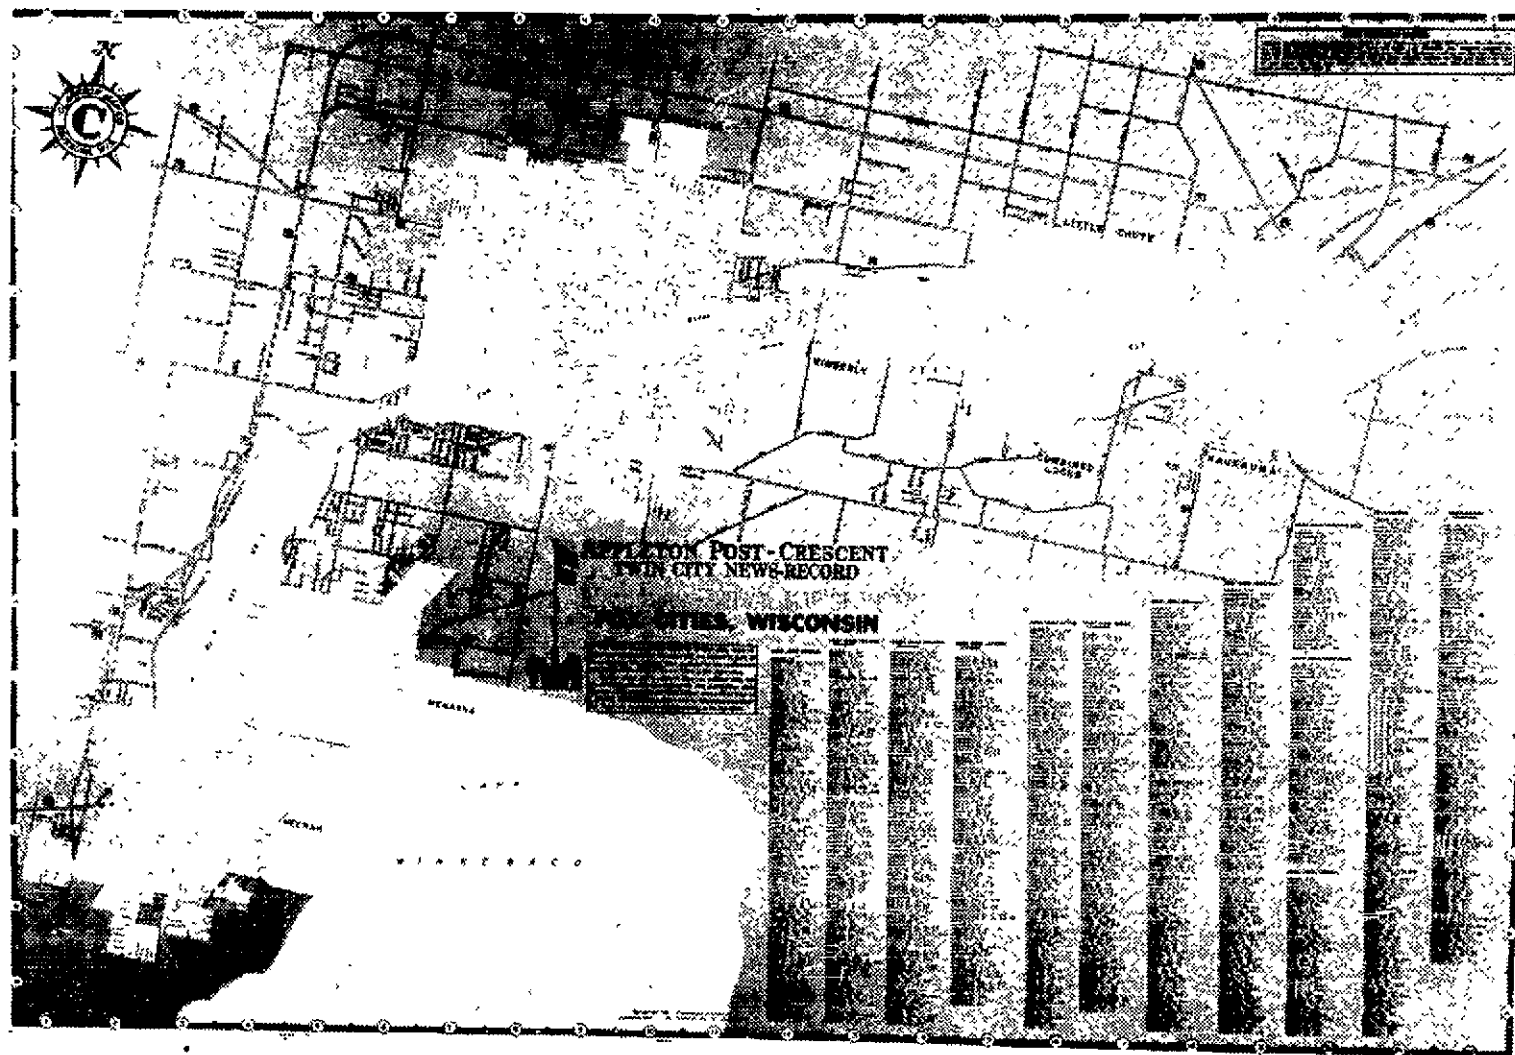

The Benefit Circle of King's Daughters presents a Parisian Flea Market treasures from the far corners of the world, antiques, linens, books, toys, plants, and boutique articles assembled for your selection, on the Mall at Valley Fair Friday, May 1st from 10 A.M.—9 P.M.

Fearful 10-Year-Old Needs Reduction of Daily Pressure

BY DR. EVE JONES

Dear Dr. Jones: My 10-year-old daughter is afraid to go anywhere without me. She takes a school bus to school but she worries every morning that the weather will be so bad it will make the roads impassable and then she won't be able to get back home to me. When I go out, she gets so nervous she sometimes vomits. Could this fear be connected with the fact that one grandparent, an aunt, an uncle, a friend, and a little friend she played with all died in the past year? She doesn't talk about the deaths.

The deaths may be troubling her, but the basic problem undoubtedly lies much deeper in her past and is much more likely to be connected with her angers and fears buried over periods of months or years.

See how things go after a few months of trying to help her at home.

Tell her that you're sorry she's worried about being hurt or hurting others when she isn't with you, but you're certain other people will help her control herself even if she loses her temper, so you don't want to hear about those fears any more. At the same time, reduce the pressures she lives under to the bare minimum of asking her to take care of her own things. Don't ask for lots of attention to manners or help with household chores. And bring up the topic of death and help her to understand she wasn't responsible for all the losses she suffered. Write in a few months to let me know how things are going.

Dear Dr. Jones: I have tried to teach my three-year-old son to dress himself. But he shows no eagerness to learn, so I'm just letting him go until he's willing. Since he doesn't take care of himself, I know he can't manage his pajamas at night. So he wears diapers to bed.

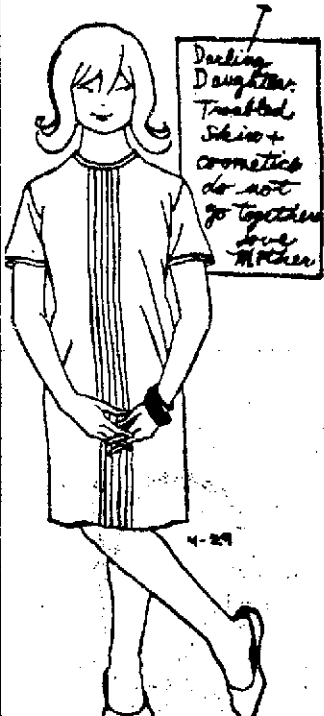

I recognize that this may be keeping him from using the toilet at night, but I don't see anything else to do. Do you?

MRS. M. F.
Yes—try letting him go to bed with just pajamas on. Select both daytime and sleep clothing he can pull on and off easily. And show him how to manage each item of clothing.

Then give him the privilege of going to play just as soon as he gets himself dressed the way big boys do. He'll be eager to learn to dress himself as soon as you give him an incentive—and there's no reason why you shouldn't use such a combination of a push and a pull.

TROUBLED SKIN AND COSMETICS

Mother may be convinced that a troubled skin and cosmetics don't go together and she is right! Until now, that is. Today there is a medicated foundation base created just for the girl with troubled skin. There is also a compressed powder with an antiseptically treated puff. This powder goes right over the base, or you can wear either one by itself. For those very special occasions when you'd like to hide a little blemish, ask mother to go to the drug store with you and look over this medicated preparation.

YOU LIVE ON WALL STREET

Wall Street may mean a market place of stocks and bonds, big business trends and big corporation mergers and executive changes to you, but Wall Street is also a street of dimes and quarters and fifty-cent pieces . . . your dimes, quarters and fifty-cent pieces. Because what goes on along Wall Street affects little business as well as big business; local business as well as national business; local buying and selling as well as trade in the large markets of the world. Yes, you DO live on Wall Street — everybody does. Your job, your security, your investments — however small — are all affected by the fluctuating figures of Wall Street.

Your newspaper means more, therefore, than just the news of the day, who hit a homerun, a comic strip, meeting in the Mayor's office or who got married; it also means the "bid and asked" the opening and closing price of hundreds of stocks and bonds and commodities and livestock on all of the important exchanges of the nation. It means you have daily access to the analyses and the prophecies of several of the world's most expert financial advisors and counselors. It means you have at your fingertips — every day — more business and financial reports than any other media can begin to supply. And it means the opportunity to digest these reports at YOUR leisure . . . "you don't have to be present to win!"

Deadline Saturday for State Alice Contest

Kaukauna Chamber of Commerce
Sponsors of May 23 Regional Event

BY JINGO
What young girl in the Fox Cities area would like to get paid $4,800 and all travel expenses for being the center of attraction for a year of exciting adventures and thrilling experiences? What girl wouldn't?

The opportunity is at hand because that is the prize awaiting the winner of the state's Alice in Dairyland contest whose first step to such excitement is the Kaukauna regional contest on May 23.

As you girls read this there is just about time to become a last minute entry in the big contest. Deadline is Saturday when your application must be received at the Alice in Dairyland headquarters at the Wisconsin State Department of Agriculture in Madison.

Sponsors of the regional contest, the Kaukauna Chamber of Commerce, indicate the contest is the simplest ever to enter and compete in. All the girl has to do is be pleasant and poised and — that narrows the field some more.

Judges for the regional doings will be assigned from outside of the area by the department of agriculture and one of the big events of the day will be a parade in which all of the contestants will get a taste of Alice's exciting experiences by riding in a car to the cheers of the throng of parade watchers.

Ordinarily, this region has a huge field of entrants. This year is different. So sparse has been the response that there is some fear that the regional contest may be taken away from Kaukauna and thrown into another contest elsewhere.

Not only is the contest a huge step toward fame and fun, entry into it, it appears, is a matter of civic pride.

It would be a shame if the big Alice parade in Milwaukee during the June 11 to 13 state contest didn't have a pair of princesses from the Kaukauna regional. Jingo can't believe that that will happen.

After all it takes very little time to send in an entry; so Saturday is a long way off — plenty of time to send that word to Madison. Include your name, address, birth date and school or occupation information.

Oh, yes — the Alice contest is only open to girls 18 to 25 years of age.

Author James Baldwin, left, and director Burgess Meredith toast star Diana Sands after the premiere performance of "Blues for Mister Charles," which opened in Broadway's ANTA Theater. The play tells of the murder of a Negro youth in a small southern town. (AP Wirephoto)

Binge Brings Much Work to Perry Mason

BY TV SCOUT

8-9 (Channel 2)—Perry Mason, for a change, has an absorbing, logical suspense-mystery. Thomas Lowell (a regular on Combat) plays a young man whose binge, after he and his friends see his parents in a violent quarrel, leads to a phony kidnapping attempt, an apparent manslaughter, an attempt to hide a body, murder and finally, a blackmail plot against a man with philanthropic motives.

6:30-7 (Channel 2)—Password moves to Hollywood, lock, stock and dictionary, for four shows, beginning tonight.

7-7:30 (Channel 11)—Paul Petersen is amusing on The Donna Reed Show when he tries to make a bad impression on a strict father whose daughter Paul is about to date—by mistake.

7-8 (Channel 2)—Dina Merrill has the second Mona Lisa smile of the night in a banal Rawhide. She comes staggering down a hillside and winds up rescued by the drovers, who think she's a lovely young thing. But Rowdy (Clint Eastwood) knows she is the goddess who presided over a gambling temple.

7:30-8 (Channel 11)—My Three Sons has a delightful (and wholesome) version of the Lysistrata legend. The girls in Robbie's (Don Grady) class refuse to date any of the boys until the football team (as hapless as the New York Mets) wins a game.

7:30-8:30 (Channel 4-5)—Dr. Kildare repeats "A Game For Three," a portrait of a young doctor with talent, but no sense of responsibility. He uses charm and humor as his cover, until

Nick Willhite Hurls Los Angeles to 7-2 Win Over Houston

Giants' Marichal, Shaw Blank
Cubs; Cards Nip Mets in 11

BY JIM BECKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Tony Cloninger said he had been throwing curve balls all night to Willie Stargell—so Willie probably wouldn't be looking for another one.

Stargell said Cloninger had been throwing him curve balls all night—so he was looking for another one.

Willie was right. Tony curved him, Willie rapped a single to right with two out in the seventh inning and ruined Cloninger's bid for a no-hitter.

But Cloninger, a 23-year-old right-hander who got a $100,000 bonus from the Milwaukee Braves and was expected to start paying dividends this year, went on to pitch a one-hitter and a 1-0 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates.

That evened Cloninger's record on the year at 1-1. The loss was to Houston's Ken Johnson, who later went on to pitch his no-hitter—and lose.

"I'd rather pitch a one-hitter and win," said Cloninger.

Other Action

In other National League action, the Los Angeles Dodgers won their fourth straight game, 7-2 over Houston, the San Francisco Giants dumped the Chicago Cubs 4-0 and the St. Louis Cardinals edged the New York Mets 4-3 in 11 innings. The Philadelphia at Cincinnati game was rained out.

Don Nottebart of Houston, who had a no-hitter last year, flirted with another one against the Dodgers—and it looked for a while as if he might duplicate Johnson's losing effort. Although he had not allowed a hit, Nottebart trailed 1-0 with two out in the seventh.

Then rookie John Werhas broke it up with a single. Werhas turned to Page 2, Col. 3

AHS Trackmen Will Battle East Friday

Red Devils Have Split Even in Four Meets

Appleton High School's track team bids for its second straight dual-meet victory of the season Friday afternoon with an invasion of Green Bay East.

The Terrors, Fox River Valley Conference indoor champions and winners over Neenah, 71-47, in their outdoor debut last week, will be favored over the Red Devils.

Triple-event favorite Chuck McKee will lead the AHS invasion. Against Neenah, McKee set a Terror school record by skimming the 120-yard high hurdles in 15.1 seconds. He also won the 180-yard low hurdles in a fast 20.8 and took the broad jump in a leap of 21 feet, 2 inches.

East's main threat to McKee in the hurdles is Tom Lamberg. He won the low hurdles event against Sheboygan North and Shawano and also took the highs against North.

The Red Devils have won twice in four dual meets. They walloped Shawano, 105-13, and beat Manitowish, 64-54; but lost to North (83½ - 34½) and to South, (63-55).

Sets Record

East's top star is pole vaulter Jim Barnhart, who set a new record in the Madison West indoor relays and soared 13 feet, ½ inch to set a FRVC indoor meet record.

East's Tom Rein figures to battle it out with AHS' Jim Linzmeyer and George Webster for laurels in the weights. Linzmeyer got out a good throw of 140 feet, 9½ inches to win at the discus title at Neenah, while Webster threw the shot 47 feet.

Other top Terror threats for wins include Gary Hietpas, Dennis Brinkman, Jim Dunsirn and Joe Bowers. The Hietpas-Miller duel in the half-mile Friday could be one of the best races. Both have turned in a .53.6 clocking to date.

Brinkman, who ran an excellent early-season half mile of 2:05.9 in winning at Neenah, will be challenged by East's Vandenbusch, who has done 2:07.1.

AHS' 1-2 punch in the high jump, Bowers and Dunsirn, both did 5-11½ last weekend. Bowers, who turned in his best competitive jump, took first place because of fewer misses. Jim York will be the chief East challenger in this event.

Carol Sorenson Wins T-M Test On 21st Hole

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Carol Sorenson of Janesville, Wis., has advanced to today's quarter-final round of the Trans-Mississippi Women's Amateur Golf Tournament.

The Arizona State University coed, a co-medalist in the tournament, was extended to 21 holes Wednesday before ousting Carla Jean Glasgow of Whittier, Calif.

In today's round, Miss Sorenson was matched with Mrs. Marjorie Ferries of West Los Angeles, Calif., the 1957 champion.

Xavier Trackmen Defeat St. John

Bleier Wins 2 First Places,
Earns Total of 14 Points

BY HENRY SIMON
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

Bob (Rocky) Bleier celebrated his first start in competition for the 1964 Xavier track squad by leading the hawks to a 97-21 victory over Little Chute St. John here Wednesday.

The Xavier star took first in the shot put and 100-yard dash to qualify as the only double winner in a meet saturated with Xavier firsts. "Rocky" also earned a second in the 220 and a third in the broad jump, for a total of 14 points.

Xavier slammed three events in the dual, held with the Dutchmen as "hosts" on the new cinder Hawks made clean Fox Valley Lutheran track. The sweeps of the 100, mile and low hurdles.

Helf Triumphs

The only blue ribbon winner for the Chuters was Nick Helf, who poured on the steam to pass Steve Milhaupt of Xavier in the final yards of the 440. The quarter mile run was the most exciting distance event of the meet.

Winning firsts for Xavier, in addition to Bleier, were Ken Zagzebski (discus), Doug Feavel (pole vault), Bill Timmers (high jump), Jim Gmeiner (broad jump), Tim Vanderlin (220), John Rankin (880), Pat Toppins (mile), Jerry Seljan (high hurdles), Tom Peotter (low hurdles), and the two Hawk relay squads.

Zagzebski broke his own school record of 118 feet, 6 inches in the discus, with a toss of 127 feet, 6 inches.

The Chuters will travel to Green Bay Saturday for a triangular with Premontré and Marinette Central Catholic, in an effort to improve their 0-2 dual mark.

Xavier will attempt to notch dual win no. 3 in an invasion of DePere Pennington on the same day.

Lucky to Pitch

As it turned out, Cloninger was lucky to pitch at all. While taking batting practice Cloninger banded his left big toe with a foul tip. The foot swelled and before the game it was touch and go whether he would take the mound.

"There was doubt in the trainer's mind," Bragan related, "but there certainly wasn't any in Tony's. I checked him twice during the pre-game warmup just to make sure he was all right. I'm mighty happy he insisted on starting."

After the game Cloninger, who signed for a $100,000 bonus in 1958, sported a black and blue toe that he said "doesn't hurt. It's just sore."

The Braves scored in the third off Pittsburgh starter Bob Veale. Denis Menke doubled to right center, was sacrificed to third by Cloninger and scored on Felipe Alou's single to center.

Single in Seventh Spoils Cloninger's No-Hit Effort

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Youthful Tony Cloninger has straightened out at least temporarily one of the question marks on the Milwaukee Braves mound staff with a brilliant one-hit performance in beating the Pittsburgh Pirates 1-0 Wednesday night.

The 23-year-old right-hander hurled six and two-thirds hitless innings before his bid for a no-hitter was shattered on a sharp single to right by Willie Stargell. Cloninger kept his poise and retired the next seven batters in order.

The former bonus baby, who was defeated in his only other decision, said he knew what was going on.

Still That Scoreboard

"I don't see how you can pitch a no-hitter without knowing it," he said. "Nobody said anything in the dugout, but there's still that big scoreboard out there."

Cloninger indicated the hit by Stargell was all in a day's work.

"At first I concentrated on the no-hitter," he said, but after the single "I just wanted to win the ball game."

The victory was the fourth in six home starts for the Braves, who were set to close the Pirate series with a game this afternoon. The loss dropped the Pirates out of a third-place tie with the Braves, who are only a game and a half out of first place.

Cloninger, who posted five strikeouts, retired the Bucs in order in seven of the nine innings. His only walk put Dick Schofield on first in the fourth. Neither Schofield nor Stargell advanced.

The Pirates belted only one other troublesome blast, that was a drive down the foul line in right by Stargell in the fourth. Hank Aaron turned it into an out with a running, knee-high catch.

Dazzling Fast Ball

Cloninger controlled the Pirates with a dazzling fast ball, a sharp curve and an occasional change up.

Said the Pirates' Bill Mazeroski, "That change up made him tonight."

Roberto Clemente, one of the game's top hitters, said, "I've seen him with a better fast ball, but he threw the curve where he wanted to."

Win of Year

RIPON — The Lawrence College baseball team exploded for seven hits and seven runs in the top of the ninth inning for a 9-4 victory over Ripon in a Midwest Conference game here Wednesday afternoon.

The victory was the first of the season for the Vikings after four conference losses and one non-loop defeat. It was Ripon's third straight MC setback.

Veteran Ripon southpaw, Jim LaRock, had a 5-hitter going, had fanned eight batters and seemed to be coasting in to a victory with a 3-2 lead when the roof caved in.

The first five Lawrence batters in the ninth all singled to

Triangular Meet Triumph

Lawrence depth and a fine sprinting performance by Dave Brainard helped overcome the record-shattering shot put of Michigan Tech's Barry Gay and give the Vikings a triangular track victory Wednesday afternoon at sticky Whiting Field.

Lawrence finished with 85 points, Michigan Tech had 67 and Concordia of Milwaukee, competing in track for the first time this year, had nine.

Bob Lee Pitches Los Angeles to 5-1 Win Over Nats

Hurls 1-Hitter for 7 Innings; Tigers, Orioles Record Wins

BY MURRAY CASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Bob Lee, who took an automobile ride to notoriety last season, is flying high these days with the Los Angeles Angels.

Lee, a rookie right-handed pitcher who jumped to the Angels from Class D competition, won his first major league game Wednesday night, hurling a one-hitter for seven innings as Los Angeles whipped Washington 5-1.

Only last Saturday night, Lee held Cleveland to four hits in 10 innings in a game the Indians eventually won 2-1 in 11.

Lee's automobile trip came during the tremendous year he had for Batavia of the New York - Pennsylvania League.

Mays Smacks 3 Hits, Boosts Mark to .488

Willie Won't Comment on Chance For .400 Season

BY JERRY LISKA
CHICAGO (AP) — Can Willie Mays become the National League's first .400 hitter in 34 years?

With the season only 11 games old, Wondrouis Willie is batting .488 and they can't seem to get him out.

But his own San Francisco Giant manager, Al Dark, said today odds are insurmountable for Mays to become the loop's first .400 batter since Bill Terry's .401 in 1930.

The reason?

"Willie is just too brilliant an all-around player," said Dark. "When you play 162 games like Mays does—fielding like he does, running like he does, and hustling like he does—it is humanly impossible for him to hit .400."

"A .400 hitter has to concentrate on hitting. Willie concentrates on everything."

"Furthermore, if Willie only hit .250, he'd still be the greatest ball player around."

Mays, who will be 33 on May 6, refused to discuss the possibility of joining the legendary circle of 400 hitters.

Not Saying

"I'm not saying anything, but not anything," Mays commented after his triple and two singles in five trips helped squelch the Chicago Cubs 4-0 Wednesday.

"Let other people talk," said Mays. "Me, I just play baseball and take my hits when I can get them."

Mays never got off to a better start, even when he won the league title with .345 in 1954 or hit .347 in 1958 when he yielded the crown to Richie Ashburn on the last day of the season.

Dark elaborated on the problems Mays faces which the Giant pilot claims the old time hitting stars did not encounter.

"The gloves may be bigger and the bats lighter today, but unquestionably the pitchers are better and the all-around competition stiffer," said Dark.

Then the property of the Pittsburgh Pirates, Lee was called on to pitch in an exhibition game at Cleveland against the Indians.

He drove to the game, struck out 16 and rapped two doubles in a 7-1 victory, then drove back to Batavia.

20-2 Record

He proceeded to finish the season with a 20-2 record and a 1.70 earned run average, the best marks in the league.

Actually the rise from Batavia to the Angels was not as meteoric as it might seem. The 26-year-old Iowa native spent so much time prepping for the majors he should have considered pushing for an old-age pension plan for the minor leagues.

Lee pitched in the minors for eight years, starting in 1956. His record in that time wasn't even good. Before Batavia, he won 38 games and lost 55.

But now, suddenly, after two starts and 21 innings with Los Angeles, he has compiled a 1.29 earned run average.

Lee's performance Wednesday night highlighted an American League schedule riddled by rain. Detroit nipped Kansas City 5-4 in 10 innings, and Baltimore downed Boston 4-2 in other games. Rain washed out Chicago at New York while wet grounds knocked out Cleveland at Minnesota.

Single by Phillips

Lee, making his second start, gave up only a single to Dick Phillips with one out in the fifth inning. He was removed from the game when he tired in the eighth after walking Hunt. While he was in, the Senators didn't move a man past first base.

After he walked Hunt, though, Washington scored on singles by Don Lock and Ken Retzer off reliever Bob Dilliba.

Joe Koppe tripled home two runs for the Angels in a three-run second inning. Tom Satriano and Bob Rodgers knocked in runs in the third.

Don Demeter's home run off John Wyatt gave the Tigers their extra-inning triumph. Detroit had taken a 4-0 lead, but the Athletics roared back behind the hitting of Ed Charles.

Charles Homers

Charles slugged a solo homer in the sixth, then capped a three-run rally in the seventh with a run-scoring single. Dick Green's single and a double play accounted for the other two runs in the inning.

Al Kaline hit a home run for the Tigers in the fourth while Norm Cash knocked in two runs and Bill Freehan one with singles in the sixth.

Jackie Brandt and Brooks Robinson powered Baltimore past Boston Brandt doubled home two runs in the seventh inning for the margin of victory. Robinson hit a home run, doubled twice and scored three runs.

Wes Stock, pitching one inning in relief, picked up his second victory of the season, his 10th straight since July 12, 1962, and his 17th in 19 decisions since Aug. 23, 1960.

Marichal and Shaw Combine For Shutout has batted in three runs on the night. Another rookie, Nick Willhite, pitched the victory, a five-hitter. He was the latest Dodger to step in and take up the slack left by injuries to Sandy Koufax and Johnny Podres.

The Dodgers, who lifted their season mark to 6-9, now have allowed only three runs in their last four games.

Willie Mays, off to the greatest start of his career, lifted his batting average to a symmetrical and slightly unreal .488 with a triple and two singles. He drove in two Giants runs to raise his RBI to 20.

Marichal Wins

Juan Marichal, the Giants ace, won his third game without defeat. He got some ninth-inning relief help from Bob Shaw. Bases on balls got everybody into trouble in the Cards-Mets game. St. Louis starter Bob Gibson walked the first two men and then served up a three-run homer to Tim Lincecum.

But that was all for the Mets. The Cards peeked away at four New York pitchers. Singles by Dick Groat, Bill White and Ken Boyer got a run in the first and a homer by White in the sixth narrowed the gap. Curt Flood singled home the tying run in the seventh.

In the 11th, reliever Larry Bearnarth gave up a single to Boyer and then walked Tim McCarver. After a sacrifice, Bearnarth intentionally walked Geoff Long to force the winning run home.

Come Close

Kim Dammers and Dave Nero both came close to being double winners. Dammers lost a close mile race to Oliver Hannula of Tech but came back to beat his Michigan opponent with a good time of 10:29.1 in the 2-mile.

Nero had his best day. He was narrowly edged by Larry Laurich of Michigan Tech in the high hurdles, but swept away from all opposition with a 25.7 time in the lows.

Bob Bonewitz of the Vikings took the lead in the 440 on the first turn, sagged briefly in the middle and then thundered down the stretch to win by about three yards. Bonewitz was also fourth in the 220 and ran on the winning relay team.

Bob Pepper and Don Cass, a couple of specialists, were the other winners for Coach Gene Davis' team. Pepper matched his best height of 12-6 in the pole vault while Cass leaped 20-7/4 to take the broad jump.

The other Viking first came in the mile relay. Bonewitz, Mike Gannett, Henry Kaiser and Brainerd teamed together to nip the Tech relay team by a stroke at the finish.

Luke Groser, who co-captains the team along with Brainerd, placed second in both the shot and discus. Groser had a throw of 42-7 in the shot and 124-7 in the discus for his best marks of the year.

The Vikings have now split in two dual meets, placed third in

Patterson to Try for Clay After Machen

Former Champion Signs for 12-Round Bout in Stockholm

NEW YORK (AP) — Floyd Patterson has a plan for the future. Contrary to the opinion of some people, he thinks his future still is ahead of him.

"If I beat Eddie Machen (July 5 at Stockholm) I am going to try to get Cassius Clay," the former world heavyweight champion said. "I feel I may get the chance. After that, if I am victorious, I want to fight Sonny Liston. Then I shall fight — provided I don't get knocked out in the first round."

"I would have retired after my second fight with Liston. In Las Vegas if I had made a better showing. When I got knocked out in the first round again I had to remain in boxing."

Patterson and Machen were at a midtown restaurant Wednesday to sign contracts for their 12-round match at $5,000-seat Soina Stadium, a Stockholm football field. Edw. Alquist and Al Bolan, the promoters, talked of a possible sell-out. Bolan said he was working with John F. B. to finance, head of the North Network, to fly the films back from Stockholm for a 10 p.m. showing on U.S. television the same night, 2 Sunday.

Machen, making a comeback at 31, said he was guaranteed $50,000 plus 30 per cent of the ancillary rights. Patterson, 29, was vague and said he was working on a percentage of everything. It is believed Patterson is getting 40 per cent.

'Run' of White Bass Starts on Wolf River

Presence of Big Males Indicates Top-Flight Action

BY DICK McDANIEL
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

ORIHULA — This weekend promises to be a busy one for anglers interested in filling their wash-tubs with white bass as the run started Tuesday and may reach its peak by Friday, Saturday and Sunday if the weather doesn't take a freezing-dip.

Earl Boyles, owner of the resort here, a fisherman in his own right, took this writer and several companions fishing for an hour early Wednesday afternoon to prove the "white bass run" is on.

In an hour's time, the three novices landed about 18 white bass and probably lost just as many. All were males and all were good size. . . big enough for several fillets apiece or to hang in a smoke house.

Males Run First
Boyles said his Wolf River observations during the years indicate the males run first, followed by the spawners. He maintains the presence of males indicates the run is just starting and maybe, like last year, it

Hull Injured in Traffic Accident

DETROIT (AP)—Hockey star Bobby Hull of the Chicago Black Hawks was admitted to Detroit's Henry Ford Hospital Wednesday for treatment of injuries which he told the hospital were received in a traffic accident.

A hospital spokesman said Wednesday night Hull had only minor hand injuries, appeared in good shape and was being held only for observation.

The spokesman said he was under the impression the accident happened in the city of Detroit, but Detroit police could find no record immediately of Hull's having been injured in an accident.

The hospital also said that Hull had requested that his admission be kept out of the newspapers if possible.

may last through May and into early June.

Contrary to the best estimates of the Conservation Department, the white bass are running big. The department had it figured that this year's white bass population would be in the smaller sizes.

The department maintained last year's tremendous harvest of white bass which featured fishermen catching upwards to 100 in an hour's time was the end of the 1958 hatch which was estimated in the billions.

However, the white bass produced by Boyles and company Wednesday afternoon proved the white bass have a longer life-span than predicted or the big hatch may have been in 1959 as the bass have a normal life expectancy of six years.

Some Walleyes
Fishing this week also has produced a few walleyes which may be taking a leisurely trip back to the lakes after a disappointing "run" upstream.

Fred Woolsey, a veteran Wau-paca fisherman, who became a registered guide four years ago, reported Wednesday white bass were hitting in the "pockets" on the river.

These are the slow water areas such as the eddies and at the Elbow, near Gill's Landing. The eddies are just below Guth's Landing which means the fishing is picking up all the way down from Guth's, near Wega, through Gill's Landing and Fremont down to Orihula.

The Wolf River pockets also are producing some crappies, which are reported to be of fair size.

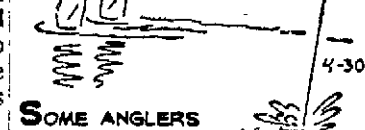

Ray Ritschke, another of Orihula's more ardent fishermen, said catfish also are running. He produced pictures of nine catfish he caught from 9 p.m. to midnight Tuesday ranging from six to nine pounds.

Ritschke uses a "Wolf River Rig", which is a three-way swivel with a short six-inch line to a sinker and a three-foot leader to the hook. Chunks of shiners are his bait.

Anglers looking for white bass action on the Wolf River this weekend can take a tip from the "old pros" and watch for the nibbles as the white bass are hitting light.

PLAY FISH TO SUIT THE REEL

ALWAYS CRANK SINGLE-ACTION REELS TO GAIN LINE WHEN PLAYING A FISH!

SOME ANGLERS STRIP LINE IN BY HAND WHEN PLAYING A FISH. IT'S A SAFE PRACTICE IF USING AN AUTO-MATIC REEL THAT TRIGGERS-IN EXCESS LINE. BUT IF REEL IS A SINGLE-ACTION TYPE, PLAY A FISH FROM THE REEL, DON'T STRIP LINE BY HAND. OTHERWISE, WHEN YOU HAVE WORKED A FISH CLOSE, SLACK MAY BE TANGLED, CAUSE TROUBLE IF FISH BREAKS FOR FREEDOM.

But only in the third was the Braves able to score. Dennis Menke drilled a double to right center and reached third on a sacrifice by Cloninger. A single by Felipe Alou produced the run.

Hank Fischer, 2-0, was set to start for the Braves today against Joe Gibbon, 0-0. The Braves open their first series of the season with the first-place Philadelphia Phillies Friday night.

Jim Hall Hitting at .636 Clip in Last Three Tilts

Late Surge Lifts Twin Outfielder's Average to .345

ST. PAUL - MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Jimmie Hall, whacking the ball at a .636 clip in the Minnesota Twins' last three games, says there's still room for improvement.

"I'm getting my timing back," Hall said Wednesday. "But I've still got room for improvement, because I wasn't hitting the ball well at all."

Hall had a fine spring training year in Florida and collected a single and double in five times at bat in the Twins' season opener at Cleveland April 14. But he pulled a leg muscle in that game and missed the next five games.

He returned to duty in center field when the Twins came home April 21 but had lost much of his sharpness at the plate because of the layoff.

Only One Hit
In Minnesota's first three games at home — two against Washington and one against Detroit — Jimmie managed only one hit, a double, in 11 trips to the plate.

Since then, he's been on a rampage. Hall got two singles in three trips against Detroit last Saturday, hit a home run and single in three official times up against the Tigers Sunday and belted another homer and two more singles in five at bats against Cleveland Tuesday.

The surge lifted Hall's batting average to .345, and he's tied for the club runs batted in lead with eight.

Hard to Say
"It's hard to say whether I can keep up this pace," Hall said. "I'd like to end up the season at .345, then I could say I was in the groove. But there's a mighty long way to go yet."

Nobody — including Jimmie himself — expects him to hit .345 for the season, but the way he's swinging the bat Manager Sam Mele sees no reason why Hall shouldn't hit around the .300 mark.

As a rookie in 1963, Hall batted .260, drove in 80 runs and broke Ted Williams' record for home runs by an American League first-year man, collecting 33 homers.

Where does he like his pitches? "Don't ask me," Hall replied. "I just swing the bat. I go up to swing, and I don't know where the pitches are."

Winner of $132,232 Hasn't Cashed Twin-Double Ticket

WESTBURY, N.Y. (AP) — It's only money, but everyone is wondering why the gentleman who won $132,232.80 in the Roosevelt Raceway twin-double Wednesday night hasn't dropped around to collect the cash.

The purchaser of the ticket of the richest twin-double ticket in history was first thought to be a woman. Wednesday the buyer was identified as a nervous, well-dressed man.

A check of the mutual machines at the track on Long Island disclosed that the pastebord was sold by George Hawkins, who works on the third floor mezzanine of the grandstand. He recalled selling the ticket because the purchaser produced two $100 bills and bought 18 tickets for $10 each, receiving $20 change.

Hawkins said the better appeared to be a novice at twin double betting, a system in which bettors who pick the winners of the sixth and seventh races and can turn in their winning tickets and choose the probable winners in the eighth and ninth races.

The deadline for cashing the ticket is midnight, March 31, 1965. If no one turns up by then, the money goes to the state.

If the winner does show up, he'll owe the Internal Revenue Service more than $90,000 and also will have to pay New York state tax.

5 Top Milers In Invitational Run at Beloit

Field Includes
Dyrol Burleson,
Of Oregon

BELOIT (AP) — Five of the nation's top milers will compete in a special invitational run that will headline the 25th annual Beloit Relays Saturday.

The star-studded field seems certain to shatter the meet's mile record of 4:13.7 set by Gil Dodds of Ashland in 1941. And two of the entrants have run the event under four minutes—Dyrol Burleson, formerly of the University of Oregon, six times, and Bill Dotson of Kansas twice.

Others entered are Pat McNeal of Kansas State, Lt. Cliff Cushman of Lawrence, Kan., and Copley Vickers of Tennessee.

The meet sponsored by Beloit College has attracted a field of 350 athletes from 20 colleges.

Outstanding Depth
Two Illinois colleges, Wheaton and Monmouth, and Hillsdale of Michigan, have outstanding depth and are likely to dominate the meet.

Four defending champions will return, one of whom, Wheaton miler, Bill Taylor, stands a chance of bettering the 4:13.7 meet record. He has turned 4:14 this season.

Other defending champions and their events are: Keith Watkins, also of Wheaton, holder of meet pole vault record of 13-6 3/4 set in 1963; Ben Bennett, Millikin, winner of the 100 yard dash in 10.3 in 1963, and Tom Ashman, Millikin, who won the high jump at 6-1 1/2.

Colleges and universities competing in the meet are Beloit, Carroll, Knox, Monmouth, Coe, Kalamazoo, Lakeland, Milton, Rockford, North Central, Wheaton, Dubuque, Millikin, Hillsdale, Illinois Wesleyan, Loras, MacMurray, Elmhurst, Central of Iowa and Principia.

All events will be held in the afternoon, starting at 12:45 p.m.

gave the Vikes the lead and sent LaRock to the showers. Sophomore Tom Sewall came in and gave up two more hits, including a 2-run triple by Jack Harwood, before the Vikes were retired.

Steve Bernstein hurled a strong 4-hitter for the Vikes and although five walks and a pair of hit batsmen kept him in trouble, he proved tough in the clutch and received good support in the field. Bernstein fanned five Ripon batters.

First baseman Paul Clark paced the Vikes at the plate with three singles in four trips. Dennis Walsh and Mike O'Neill each had a pair of hits for the winners.

Dick Konrad, of Oshkosh, topped Ripon with two of the Redmen's four safeties.

Shipp Scores 30, but U. S. Team Loses

Ukrainian '5'
Wins, 81-80,
In Overtime

KIEV (AP) — You can't blame the disastrous record of the touring U.S. basketball team in Poland and Russia on Jerry Shipp.

The Americans lost their sixth in eight games Wednesday night. This time it was to the National Team of the Ukraina 81-80 in overtime.

But Shipp scored 30 points to gain high scoring honors just as he has done in most games on the tour. Tass, the Russian News Agency, reported he "operated like a well-tuned machine."

Shipp, a native of Shreveport, Okla., now is in his sixth year with the AAU Phillips Oilers of Bartlesville, Okla. He played for Southeast Oklahoma State in his college days and has steadily improved with the Oilers. He will play on the U.S. Olympic team in the Games at Tokyo in October.

Now 28, the 6-foot-6, 195-pound Shipp has played basketball around the world. He competed in the 1963 Pan-American games as well as in the Philippines and Formosa tournaments in 1962. In 1961 he was with the U.S. team that didn't lose a game on that Russia tour.

Jim (Bad News) Barnes, 6-8 star from Texas Western, was second high scorer with 15 points and with Shipp helped the Americans to a 13-point first half lead at 38-25.

The Ukrainians rallied in the second half and tied the score at 71-71 with 10 seconds left. The lead changed hands several times in the overtime before two free throws won for the Ukrainians.

The next game on the tour is May 3 at Tbilisi against Kazakhstan.

Refuses Bid of Company Competing With Johnson-Owned Austin Station

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Communications Commission is sticking to its guns in a controversy involving the television holdings of President Johnson's family.

It has struck down again a bid by a Texas firm—TV Cable of Austin—to free itself of FCC restriction and compete all-out with KTBC-TV, the station owned by the Johnson interests in Austin.

Increases Prospects
In doing so, it increased the prospects that a competing firm will win the race with TV Cable for subscribers—and profits—in Austin. And the Johnson interests have an option to purchase half the stock of that competing firm at low cost.

The 6-0 vote Wednesday was another chapter in the lengthening wrangle between two Texas pay television operations seeking to give Austin residents

GM Profits Top Any Corporate Level in History

NEW YORK (AP) — Booming automobile sales boosted General Motors Corp.'s profits in the first three months of this year to the highest level of any corporation in history.

GM reported Wednesday that its earnings soared to $536 million, or $1.87 a share, from $414 million, or $1.45 a share, in the first quarter of 1964. The previous high was $506 million in the final quarter of 1963.

The figures exceeded by far the second-ranked money-maker, American Telephone & Telegraph Co., which in the three months ended Feb. 29 earned $397,918,000, or $1.58 a share.

GM sales increased to $4,786,000,000, a 15-per cent gain over $4,147,000,000 in the 1963 last quarter.

Cuba Complains to the U.N.

Cuba has issued an official complaint to the United Nations that continued U-2 flights by the United States over the island for the purpose of reconnaissance are "intolerable." The flights, said the Cuban note, are "arbitrary, provocative, illegal and irresponsible." And in addition to that, Raul Castro has charged that United States Marines stationed at Guantanamo threw stones at Cuban sentries on the border.

There is something of a wistful note in this report: would that we all could go back to throwing stones instead of setting up missile bases.

The Soviet Union also sternly called the U-2 flights "an obvious violation" of Cuban territory and requested that they be stopped. But in the same breath, Russia announced that it was turning over its materiel on the island to the Cubans and withdrawing its own personnel. In a way the Kremlin seemed to be saying that the Cubans had the perfect right to shoot down United States planes but it wanted to make it clear that the Cubans were doing the shooting. This may have been an announcement as much to Fidel Castro as it was to the United States.

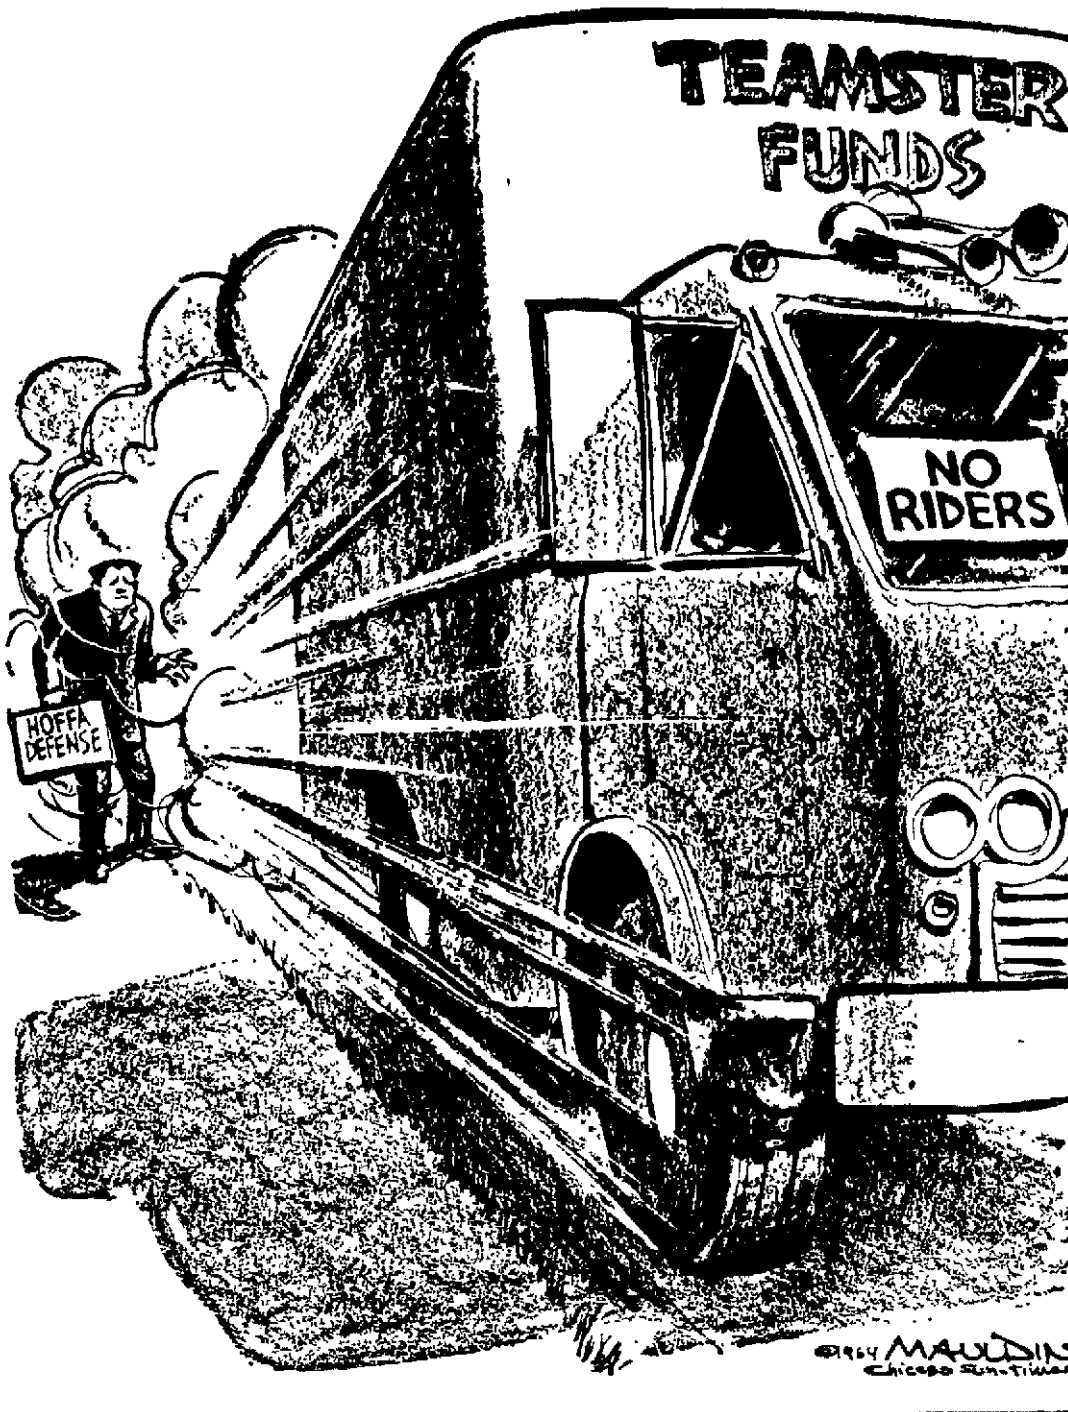

The Cuban appeal to the U.N. is interesting because there was supposed to have been another one about the time of the October, 1962 crisis when President Kennedy finally became aware that there were Russian missiles in Cuba pointing at us. In Khrushchev's haste to back down from what he discovered was a very dangerous spot, he apparently told President Kennedy that the United Nations could make an inspection to determine that the missiles were really gone. At the time the Soviet Union didn't seem at all concerned about Cuba's territorial integrity or the plans being made for the island by the United States and Russia.

But nothing more was ever done about the inspection plan. Apparently there was never any sort of official request for such an inspection. The United States officials seemed to be so relieved that the Russians had backed down that they didn't want to press too far. And certainly the United Nations wanted no part of that business.

If the Cubans don't want the present U-2 flights to continue — flights which President Johnson has said are essential to our security — they ought to ask the U.N. for that long overdue inspection tour. But that would mean regular inspections and it would also set a precedent about such inspections in the Communist world which insists that inspection is espionage. And the whole thing would probably be vetoed in the Security Council in any event.

In the meantime, the U-2s should fly high. The whole controversy is a false one since they've been doing just that for years. But there actually may be some chance now that the Russians are leaving, the Cubans will become more trigger happy.

175 Years Ago Today the First U. S. President Was Inaugurated

BY MAX FREEDMAN

On 30 April 1789 — 175 years ago — George Washington took the oath of office as the first President of the United States. It had been "with a mind oppressed with more anxious and painful sensations than I have words to express" that he had set out on his journey from Mount Vernon to New York.

He knew that the next few years would be filled with reproaches and bitterness even though he was the one choice to lead the country. But his anxiety yielded to his sense of duty. For he was resolved to show "the best disposition to render service to my country in obedience to its calls." He moved with a mixture of foreboding and faith, through scenes which recalled the grim hazards of the war years, to take up the ponderous weight of political leadership.

The ceremony of inauguration was performed in what is now the center of the financial district of New York. Standing between two pillars on the gallery of Federal Hall in Wall Street, he was flanked by John Adams, the vice president, and by Chancellor Robert R. Livingston. On a large red cushion rested the Bible upheld by James Otis, the secretary of the Senate. The oath was read by Chancellor Livingston. The accepted version is that he shouted the five Hi-Y clubs. Committee chairmen included Frank Kamps, Jack Lally, Robert Bailey, Robert Bodmer and Bruce Cameron.

10 YEARS AGO

Thursday, April 29, 1954.

Twenty-two Appleton High School students were elected to National Honor Society. The seniors were Jean Buchanan, Nancy Carroll, Susan Monteith, Suzanne Mummie, Sarah Blacher, Mary McConagha, Patsy Greiner, Jim Kiefer, Marilyn Benson, Patricia Arthur, Donna Roehm, JoAnne Kirk, Robert Newton, Robert Krueger, Susan Manner, Diane Rebenitch, Beverly Radloff, Lynn Laue, Clyde Cross, Jim Koehnke, James Beck and James Streator.

Lyman B. Clark and Alvin Fulcer, sheriff and board chairman respectively of Outagamie County, were chosen consultants in their fields by the National Jail Association of New York for the organization's national conference in Chicago.

The Neenah-Menasha Trades and Labor Council and its affiliated unions were planning a labor-management dinner at Germania Hall. Council President John Arnold was general chairman of the event. His planning committee members included Robert Forstner, Ebbe Berg, Hugo Woeckner, Al Kass, Claude Cash, Richard Garzner, Ray Hoelzel, Hart Shippey and Adolph Gebheim.

to the crowd in a loud voice: "It is done. Long live George Washington, President of the United States!" But some believe that Chancellor Livingston, too choked with tears to say anything, merely waved his hat as the crowd cried its acclamation.

VAGUE ANGER AND FEAR

The nation had found its man but it still had to find its destiny. The whole country quivered with a vague anger and fear. "The struggle to ratify the Constitution had opened deep wounds. National unity was a distant promise, not an accomplished fact. In his last message in 1796 Washington still found it necessary to say "Be united, be Americans."

The largest city was Philadelphia with a population of 42,000. New York came next with 33,000 and Boston was third with 18,000. Most of the country's four million people lived in rural America. They had to organize the national government and defend its existence while the world grappled with the French Revolution. Other governments have been scattered like leaves in a storm but the American Constitution still flourishes and now has the oldest pedigree in freedom known to mankind. Without the greatness of Washington to protect it and to nurture its growth the Constitution might easily have fallen from its proud estate.

The common historical verdict that Washington was an indifferent administrator who did little to mould the traditions of the Presidency cannot survive the scholarship of Professor Leonard D. White. It is not wrong to say that Washington was perpetually aware that every decision made by him would be a precedent for the Presidency and would reach to a remote age.

So he labored to exalt the prestige and power of his office. That explains his insistence on his pride of place, and his ostentatious emphasis that the President guarded the very heart of the American system. His values were misunderstood. He was accused of being a man of posturing vanity when he was in reality interested not in personal babbles but in the solemn prerogatives which must accompany a great power.

HAD MANY PROBLEMS

He had to establish his control over the executive branch. He could not afford to yield weakly to the demands of a hectoring Congress. He had to convince the reluctant state legislatures that the slothful confederacy would never return. The compulsions of external danger compelled him to chart the principles of foreign policy and to make their execution the primary charge on the Presidency. Without his constant urging Congress might have moved with languid folly, instead of exemplary wisdom, to organize the Supreme Court and the federal judicial system.

None of these achievements came easily and their prodigious tally is the real measure of Washington's status as a national leader. Respect deepens into astonished gratitude when one remembers that all this was done with a divided country and a divided cabinet.

Washington deserves a revision of his credentials of greatness. His invincible leadership in the Revolutionary War is an enduring glory. But as a man he has been stiffened into a monument, and as a statesman he has been degraded into a shrine. It is high time to give him back to the American people with all his passionate complexities and with all his faults and glories thick upon him. On this anniversary day we do well to remember that President George Washington saved the young nation from many a wrong turning, and that even now the older nation will find it easier to choose the right road if it heeds his valiant example.

Wisconsin Report

Reynolds Hit Popular Note With Proposed Tax Aid for Elderly

BY JOHN WYNGAARD

MADISON—When this reporter hired a contractor to build a home some years ago, it was a pleasure to observe his skilled craftsmen on the job. On the statehouse beat the reporter today is likely to admire the skill with which Gov. Reynolds has thrown the Republican foe in the legislature off balance with an ingenious and inevitably effective political ploy about property tax relief for thousands of elderly residents and voters of Wisconsin.

The governor needed something to take the minds of the voters and his political associates off his recent political troubles. He found it in the issue of aid for the aged, than which there is perhaps nothing quite as sentimentally popular that could have been invented in the circumstances that confronted him.

There can be no doubt whatever that the property tax bill of the elderly and retired man and his wife in countless instances is one of the gnawing economic problems of the household. Scarcely a younger person lives in Wisconsin, it may be guessed, who doesn't know half a dozen case histories out of his personal acquaintance.

POLITICS
There are something over 400,000 persons in the state listed by the census as over the age of 65.

That is an attractive voting bloc, in the definition of any politician regarding the fall election outlook with uncertainty.

That there are among them many persons responsive to the idea that they should have special consideration in tax liability was indicated quickly, perhaps almost suspiciously, by the flow of petitions and letters to Madison. In less than a week after the governor unveiled his tax relief plan, there were mimeographed petitions reaching legislative clerks, signed with the names of persons who certified that they were paying attention because they knew the names of their legislative representatives.

Quite obviously, somebody helped to arrange such fast communication. But it is a matter of very little importance, practically speaking. Legislators in an election year are as sensitive as are governors. Some of them are a little more sensitive, as the helter-skelter reaction of the two legislative houses demonstrated.

There are good reasons why this proposition should be examined critically. The first of them is that it is based on financing that is doubtful to some degree. Even if the surplus claimed by the governor, is validated at the year's end, no one seriously believes that such an expenditure commitment can be secured for the following years without additional taxation upon others in the Wisconsin community including many younger householders whose property tax burdens are as serious and sometimes more onerous than those of their parents.

SOMEBODY MUST PAY

Gov. Reynolds last year accepted the idea of more sales taxes with genuine reluctance. That record remains one of the millstones around his neck as he prepares for a new campaign and faces the need to ask "liberals" to back him once again. Some of those new taxes fell upon the aged and other impecunious. To a degree the new property tax credit plan is the act of a contrite man.

But the irony is that this new system of subsidizing the local taxes of one big group of taxpayers out of the state treasury will inevitably force new state taxation in the future — above the new taxation that will be required for schools and welfare and the other basic budget commitments. Those new taxes will again be provided through broadening of the tax base, either through more sales taxation, or through further flattening of the income tax rates. The old as well as the young will pay.

But will a member of the legislature who has thoughtfully been reminded by the executive office that there are 5,000 old folks in his district remember those repercussions? At the moment it appears doubtful.

Strictly Personal!

Money Makes Money And Love Makes Love

BY SYDNEY J. HARRIS

Purely Personal Prejudices: Nothing is more foolish than to talk about "freedom" as a principle, when it's really a relationship: everybody is for freedom — the tyrant most of all, since he wants it every bit of it for himself.

It's easy to mistake a merely active man for one who is actually accomplishing something; as Kim Hubbard observed, "A bee is never as busy as it seems; it's just that it can't buzz any slower."

I find few things more spiritually demeaning than watching a candidate for office making those fulsome attempts to be more affable than he should naturally be; Gov. Rockefeller's "Hi-ya fella!" makes me curdle with embarrassment for him.

The rise of technology poses an insuperable economic problem in that the ways of spending money are incessantly multiplied, but the ways of earning it remain as few as ever.

There is one phrase that always means exactly the reverse of what it says: "Not to change the subject," means "to change the subject."

had enough money to make a fool of yourself with.

Some writers and speakers imagine that they avoid being tedious by being brief; but this conceit was exploded long ago by the Comte de Rivarol, when he commented on a couplet: "It is excellent, but somewhat long-winded."

The true art of being a diplomat consists in being able to refuse a favor in such a manner that he seems to be conferring one. ("I could not love thee, dear, so much, loved I not honor more.")

Everyone accepts the maxim that "money makes money;" but few grasp the emotional corollary that "love makes love" — that in the economics of the heart, those unwilling to make a large investment can get no return, and that the very abundance itself generates more of the same.

The only house guest more annoying than the one who won't do anything for himself is the one who always wants to help when help isn't wanted.

Between ordinary people, friendships grow slowly from the first guarded meeting; between intellectuals, friendships often spring into full ripeness at the first meeting, and then quickly turn rotten as it is learned that a similarity of ideas and ideals has no necessary relationship to the core of the personality beneath them. Ordinary people, in this respect, are wiser than their intellectual superiors.

Potomac Fever— by Jack Wilson

President Johnson says he'll drive poverty underground. Soon you'll hear a committee chairman demand: "Are you now or have you ever been poor?"

Goldwater refuses LBJ's offer of a foreign affairs briefing, but Margaret Chase Smith accepts. She's not afraid a few facts will influence her thinking.

TV industry news: Whenever Barry Goldwater gets ready to start a new show he will be given prime time—7 to 6:30.

What do those movie producers want? First they pay Liz and Richard millions of dollars for acting — and then sue them for millions of dollars for acting up.

Session Recessed With Agreement on Property Tax Relief

Both Surplus, General Funds
To be Used to Aid Elderly

BY HARVEY BREUSCHER

MADISON (AP)—The Wisconsin Legislature, dominated by Republicans and spurred by a Democratic governor, has reached agreement on a proposal that will channel $10.3 million a year to low income persons of retirement age.

Framed as a property tax relief measure, the program adopted Wednesday will aid needy citizens over 65 whether or not they live in their own home. The benefits will go to those with annual earnings of less than $3,000 and take the form of an income tax credit or refund.

Reynolds to Sign Bill
As an example, an individual with an income of $1,000 could get a benefit of about $187.

Gov. John W. Reynolds has indicated he will sign the measure, even though the aid is less than the $17 million he sketched the method of financing was altered from his original proposal.

Adoption of the compromise plan brought to a close the spring legislative session that began April 13. Under terms of a recess resolution drafted by the Republican majority, the Legislature will not reconvene until Nov. 9, or six days after the general election.

The scheduled return date does not take into account the distinct possibility of a special session should Reynolds gain ground in his running fight with the Senate over appointive powers. The governor has said he will renew a Supreme Court test of his authority to put appointees in state jobs without Senate confirmation.

Already before the court is the realignment of the Senate and Assembly districts, the result of Reynolds' veto of a Republican sponsored reapportionment plan set him early in the spring meeting. The Supreme Court has said it will take over the job Friday and complete it by May 15.

Conferees Agree
It took a conference committee to break a stalemate on financing the tax relief plan. Reynolds and the Democratic minority insisted the money should come from general funds, and the governor said the initial outlay would be covered

Britain Asked to Revise Cuban Trade Program

U. S. Wants to Keep
From Castro's Hands

WASHINGTON (AP)—Top U.S. officials are understood to have urged anew in private talks here this week that Britain revise its policy of trade with Cuba and support the U.S. effort to deny vitally needed industrial and transportation equipment to the Castro government.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk has held a series of discussions on world problems with British Foreign Secretary, R. A. Butler. President Johnson had a conference with Butler Wednesday.

Officials have confirmed that Cuban issues were raised in the Rusk-Butler talks. The White House only said that the foreign secretary and the President discussed matters of mutual interest.

Traveling to Japan
Butler has been in Washington for a conference of the Central Treaty Organization which ended Wednesday. He is going on to Japan and the Philippines for talks seeking some way to avoid a serious crisis between Indonesia and British-backed Malaysia over territorial claims pressed by Indonesia.

Butler is understood to be pleased by the support Britain has received from the United States in its efforts to preserve the territorial integrity of Malaysia.

Top U.S. officials by contrast are known to be displeased by Britain's Cuban trade policy which they regard as a breaking of the barrier of economic isolation from non-Communist trade which the United States has been working to build around Cuba.

Only Effective Curb
Butler is believed to have been told, as U.S. officials have recently said publicly, that the denial of important industrial and transportation supplies to Castro is the only effective weapon presently available to the United States for countering Castro's attempts to spread communism in the Western Hemisphere through propaganda and subversion.

The British counterargument to the U.S. boycott policy is that the boycott is not really effective, that the United States trades with various Communist countries including the Soviet Union, and that Britain traditionally trades with all countries regardless of political considerations.

Britain made a deal with the Castro government last January to sell Cuba 450 buses and spare parts at a total cost in excess of $12 million.

Reds Demand That U. S. Fleet Quit Indian Ocean

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)—The Communist-controlled navigation and dockworkers union will boycott all American ships unless the U.S. 7th Fleet withdraws from the Indian Ocean, the Communist party newspaper Harijan Rakyat said today.

The union urged President Sukarno's government to take over all American firms in Indonesia if the boycott threat does not force U.S. warships out of the Indian Ocean, which Sukarno has renamed the Indonesian Ocean.

Cease-Fire Violated in Greek Cypriot Attack

Some of Her Traffic Tickets were for overtime parking so Diane Seidl of Santa Monica, Calif., wears an identifying sign as she works as a volunteer parking meter collection attendant Wednesday. The alternative was five days in jail and $122 in fines. That was the choice she got from Municipal Judge W. Blair Gibbons who is known for his novel penalties for traffic violators. No Report Of Damage To Castle

BY WEBB MCKINLEY

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP)—The Greek Cypriots broke their cease-fire in the Kyrenia mountain range today with a mortar attack on Turkish Cypriots defending the besieged castle of St. Hilarion.

Seven mortar shells were fired at the castle in 15 minutes, but there was no immediate report of damage. The cease-fire ended 13 hours after it was announced.

A spokesman for the Greek Cypriot government expressed surprise at the U.N. report of the mortar fire. He said as far as he knew, the cease-fire still was supposed to be in effect.

The U.N. command reported that a Canadian patrol of the U.N. peace force came under fire at the Turkish village of Ag-hirda, in the southern foothills of the Kyrenia range. Presumably the fire came from Greek Cypriot positions along the crest of the range near St. Hilarion.

New Peace Plan Offered

Both the U.N. command and the Turkish Cypriots had looked with skepticism on the cease-fire, which was announced after the U.N. command and Secretary-General U Thant put strong pressure on the Greek Cypriots to end their five-day-old operation against Turkish Cypriots controlling the main highway from Nicosia to the Port of Kyrenia, on the north coast.

Thant also unveiled a new peace plan to the Security Council.

Swedes Seize Weapons
U.N. soldiers disarmed a group of Cypriot battlers Wednesday night for the first time since the peace force became operational March 27.

A Swedish contingent seized weapons from a party of Greek Cypriots who apparently had fired on the Swedish troops in the mixed Greek-Turkish village.

Mississippi Fails To Ban Republicans

State's Senate Passes 22
Bills, House Rejects Them

BY JAMES SAGGUS

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—The move to stamp out Republicanism in Mississippi with new election laws looked like another lost cause today.

The 22 bills backed by Gov. Paul Johnson, which passed the State Senate, ran into surprisingly strong opposition in the House.

After two straight setbacks in House votes, Rep. Roy Strickland, floor manager of the package of bills, showed little hope for future victory.

"I think Wirt Yerger, State Rep. M. L. McAllister and Sen. Dirksen have won their battle," he said.

Returned to Committee

Yerger is state GOP chairman. McAllister is the only Republican in the Mississippi Legislature. Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, R-Ill., is the party's Senate minority leader.

The revolt against Johnson's election bills was signaled Tuesday when a key bill was sent back to committee for further study.

Rep. Abie Miller of Greene, told the House the move against the GOP "could upset bringing in industry to Mississippi."

Strickland's second defeat came Wednesday.

Key bills in the package would force the state's budding GOP to measure up to major party standards in organization and operation.

At present, the GOP couldn't make the grade.

Heavy GOP Gains

The party made its first serious bid for the governorship in the last election, astounding Democrats by drawing almost a third of the votes. The proposed election laws were the reaction.

The key bill referred back to committee would set these standards:

Half the precincts in a county must stage precinct conventions before a county convention is valid.

Thirty of the state's 82 counties must stage valid county

Proxmire Calls for Cut on Beer Tariff

WASHINGTON (AP)—Reductions of tariffs on American beer shipped to Europe were urged today by Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis.

"A policy of tariff reductions by our European allies in Gatt has advantages from every standpoint," Proxmire said. "It encourages freer trade among friendly nations, it improves our balance of payments and it stimulates employment in a significant domestic industry."

conventions before a state convention is valid.

The other key bill would force all candidates to run in primary elections, even if unopposed, and primary winners would have to draw at least 10 per cent of all votes cast in both party primaries to be eligible for the general election ballot.

Living Costs Move Higher

Increase One-Tenth Of 1 Per Cent but Food Prices Ease

WASHINGTON (AP)—Living costs inched up one-tenth of 1 per cent in March as prices rose for virtually all consumer items except food, the government reported today.

Lower food prices were offset by higher costs of housing, medical care, transportation and other basic items, bringing the consumer price index to 107.7.

This means that it now costs $10.77 to buy goods that cost $10 in the 1957-59 base period.

A Labor Department spokesman said costs could be expected to go up again for April, but he added "there is not the slightest indication of any serious inflation."

The spokesman, Deputy Commissioner Robert J. Myers of the Bureau of Labor Statistics, said relatively stable prices during a general business upturn provided "a very reassuring performance."

Castro Vows to Use Weapons to Halt U. S. Flights

HAVANA (AP)—Prime Minister Fidel Castro said Wednesday night Cuba will try to prevent U.S. reconnaissance flights over this island "to the limits of what our weapons can do."

But in remarks to diplomats and newsmen attending a Japanese diplomatic reception, he did not specify if that means Cuba will use Soviet rockets to try to bring down U.S. U2 planes.

The United States has announced it will continue such flights despite Cuban protests and Soviet support of the protests.

Moscow Prepares to Celebrate May Day

MOSCOW (AP)—Red streamers decorated Moscow today in preparation for May Day, the big Communist celebration that stems from a strike in Chicago.

It will be the anniversary of a strike in 1886 that led to bloodshed in the streets of Chicago. Beginning in France in 1889, May Day has been celebrated by Socialists and Communists around the world as the day of workers' solidarity.

Tests Prove Successful

Army's New Device to Assure Quick Foxholes

COLUMBUS, Ga. (AP)—The U.S. Army has come up with a successful device destined to gladden the heart of every infantryman—an instant foxhole.

To dig a proper foxhole in the past, a soldier needed a pick, shovel, spade and sometimes a prayer. And there were reports that some GIs and Marines in a hurry dug sufficient holes with their bare hands.

A team from the U.S. Combat Development Command's infantry agency put the new development on display Wednesday at Ft. Benning.

Hole Is Blasted

The result may make it possible for a soldier to pick up a one-pound foxhole digger from the supply sergeant and take a rest while the thing digs a hole for him.

What's more, says the Army, the hole can be dug in the hardest, rockiest ground.

The foxhole digger comes in two parts—the first part for blasting a small hole two inches in diameter and several inches deep. This is known as a pilot hole.

The second part of the device is placed in the pilot hole, a trigger is set, and the soldier gets out of the way for about 30 seconds while a cratering explosion digs the foxhole.

The instant foxhole was developed at the Engineer Research and Development Laboratory, Ft. Belvoir, Va.

The demonstration showed the device works best in hard, rocky, clay-type soil or frozen ground. This is because dirt blasted from soft, loam-type soil tends to cave in along the sides and the soldier has to pitch it out with a shovel.

Although the device still is in the experimental stage, it is expected to be tested in the field by troops beginning in October.

The instant foxhole varies from 20 to 36 inches deep and about two feet in diameter.

Madison Bus Stations And Airport Receive Phoned Bomb Threats

MADISON (AP)—A man with a low voice telephoned the Madison Municipal Airport Wednesday and said, "at 4:45 p. m., part of your airport will be gone."

Similar bomb threats were received at the local bus stations of the Greyhound and Badger lines.

No explosives were found by police who checked both bus terminals, the airport and the passengers.

The only delay concerned a Greyhound bus to Minneapolis. It was halted for an hour near Minneapolis as police and an Army demolition team checked the vehicle, the passengers and their luggage.

Police said the first threat was telephoned to the airport and those to the bus stations were made within the next hour. None of the calls could be checked.

Court Accused of Ignoring Congress

BY JOHN W. BECKLER

WASHINGTON (AP)—Roman Catholic Bishop Fulton J. Sheen and Gov. George C. Wallace of Alabama separately accused the Supreme Court today of bypassing the country's elected representatives by banning official prayer in public schools.

Sheen, auxiliary bishop of New York, told the House Judiciary Committee the Supreme Court ruling is based on a myth, and "a judicial body has become a legislative body."

Wallace said, "We are being manipulated by the courts in a way that is the pluralism in our national life, I would be satisfied with this."

The committee is examining numerous measures for a constitutional amendment to undo the court decision. It has been accused by Rep. Frank J. Becker, R-N.Y., chief sponsor of the proposals, of stalling.

"It is part of the deliberate design to subordinate the American people, their faith, their customs, and religious traditions to a godless state."

Bishop Sheen said that the words "In God we trust," now on the seal of the United States, are "the perfect prayer" for school.

Asked by committee members whether that is the full extent of the prayer he would suggest, Bishop Sheen replied:

"I, personally, would like more; but, as an American citizen aware of the pluralism in our national life, I would be satisfied with this."

The committee is examining numerous measures for a constitutional amendment to undo the court decision. It has been accused by Rep. Frank J. Becker, R-N.Y., chief sponsor of the proposals, of stalling.

Air Force Finds No Threat to U. S. Security in Flying Objects

BY FRED S. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Air Force has investigated more than 8,000 reported unidentified flying objects in 16 years "and has yet to discover any evidence that UFOs represent a threat" to U.S. security.

It also said today that probes of such sightings back to 1947 have failed to turn up any evidence that UFOs are "alien interplanetary space vehicles under some form of intelligent control."

This report was furnished to The Associated Press as the Air Force looked into a new epidemic of strange sightings in the skies over New Mexico.

One of the Air Force's leading civilian consultants on UFO's has gone to Socorro, N.M., to investigate the latest reports. He is Dr. J. Allen Hynek, director of the Dearborn Observatory at Northwestern University.

Some Unexplained

ordered Air Force study of unidentified flying objects, extends through 1963.

It shows that over that 16-year span, 7.7 per cent of the 8,128 reported cases remain unidentified.

The Air Force is not conceding that there is anything sinister about these unexplained

22 Life Terms for Nazi War Criminal

BOCHUM, Germany (AP)—Former Nazi Sgt. Hermann Blache today was sentenced 22 times to life in prison for the wartime massacre of Polish Jews.

The sentence was the highest ever imposed by a German war crimes court. Blache was commander of a ghetto at Tarnow, in eastern Poland.

He was found guilty on 41 counts of murder and on more than 4,000 counts of complicity in murder.

sightings. It just says, in effect, they can't be correlated with any known objects or phenomena.

It was stressed that a "great majority of the unidentified cases occurred during the first five years of the project," before analysis techniques were sharpened.

Last year there were 382 UFO reports and only 15 are still listed as unidentified.

These included "two objects described as an ear of corn and a banana (which) performed a series of maneuvers near Vandalia, Ohio" last Sept. 15.

Others involved "an unusual observation of four pink wheels" moving west over New Jersey, an object that exploded into a ball of fire near St. Gallen, Switzerland, a recurring series of flashes near Warrenville, Ill., and the like.

Air Force sleuths decided that one woman who turned in a UFO report actually had seen spots before her eyes.

Seymour Utility Projects to Cost Estimated $2,800

Water Service Will be Extended to U. S. Foods Plant, Droger Street

SEYMOUR — Estimated cost from property owners on Droeger Street between Seymour and Robbins streets, also called for sewer and water services.

Earl Gosse, superintendent of public works, said water service in the area of the new U.S. plant foods building probably would help keep down the cost. Water lines which years ago furnished the former Kuehne stockyards would be used.

Sewer service will be extended from Foote Street, said Gosse. He set the cost at $606. Meanwhile, another petition

2 Women Hurt In 2-Car Crash

Mishap on State 96 Is One of Three in Outagamie County

Two women were being treated at Kaukauna Community Hospital about 4:30 p.m. Tuesday after a two-car accident on State 96 in the Town of Vandenberg.

Injured were Miss Diane Weyenberg, 21, route 2, Kaukauna, and Mrs. Rosemary Arts, 4601 E. Wisconsin Ave.

County police said Miss Weyenberg was driving east on 96 and was involved in the collision with the car being driven west by Mrs. Arts as it turned into the Circle Acres trailer camp.

Three persons received neck injuries in a two car accident on State 54 in the Town of Osborne about 11:30 a.m.

Hit From Behind
Injured were Mrs. Frank Beil, 65, Mrs. Arnold Court, 40, and her daughter, Jane, 4, all of route 3, Seymour. They were passengers in a car driven by Frank Beil, 69, route 3, Seymour, which had pulled onto a shoulder and was struck from behind by a car driven by Felix F. Neumann, 44, route 1, Bear Creek. Neumann was not injured.

One person was hospitalized and another treated and released from Appleton Memorial Hospital after a one-car accident on County Trunk A.

Injured was Everett Nelson, 25, route 2, Jola, and Miss Ellen Thulien, Jola. Nelson has been admitted to the hospital for back injuries. Miss Thulien was treated for minor injuries and released.

Nelson's car went out of control and went into a ditch about 12:28 a.m., county police said.

Chilton Works Director Explains Why He Quit

Russell Kalupa Cites Lucrative Job Offer, Insecurity as Reasons for His Resignation

CHILTON — After only three months on the job, the city's new director of public works, Russell Kalupa, resigned his post effective today.

Kalupa took the position Jan. 21 after it was created by an ordinance passed in 1963.

Kalupa said, "working for a municipality is just not my cup of tea." He explained he had been offered a position with an eastern firm for a $14,400 salary. He was receiving $500 a month in Chilton.

Kalupa, 33, married and with two children, said he liked Chilton, but could not afford to turn down the other offer. He commended the aldermen for the job they were doing for the city.

He said "they have bent over backwards to make the job easier, but some, it seems, do not really understand what my job was supposed to be."

Unwarranted Criticism
He said he received some unwarranted criticism concerning his job and his execution of it.

When hired, Kalupa was placed on a six-month probationary period, after which time his execution of the job and salary would be reviewed by the city council.

Mayor Harry Thompson said he did not blame Kalupa for taking the better position, and the city would just have to get along as best it could until a replacement was found.

No action will be taken, Thompson said, until Tuesday's council meeting.

Kalupa said he regretted leaving on such short notice but according to his agreement with the city, he was working month to month with today ending the month.

Cites Insecurity

He thought it better to terminate his job now, he said.

The insecurity of working month to month was another reason for his resignation, he said.

At the present time, the city has undertaken two major projects, the development of a new well, which has been under the supervision of Kalupa, and the other, reconditioning of the sewage treatment plant.

Well drillers have passed the 100-foot mark. Kalupa said recently that the new well would be ready by June 1.

Contracts for the sewage treatment plant have been signed and are being reviewed by governmental agencies, which will furnish grants in aid totaling $57,000.

Kalupa resigned in a letter to the mayor and council. He gave no reason for leaving in the letter.

Cost on the Droeger Street project will be $2,245. Both cost estimates include labor. Gosse was instructed by the council to negotiate with property owners over the amount of assessment. Petitions of waiver will be invited, bypassing the need for a hearing.

The city has been charging at a rate of $3 per foot. Sewer and water services each constitute half the cost.

Mayor Den Truymen instructed Supt. Gosse and Mrs. Josephine Marnocha, city clerk, to prepare a report showing the cost of park maintenance for activities sponsored by Seymour Community High School. Gosse said it costs the city $16-$20 for labor after each football game for grounds cleanup. He said his department had "a tremendous amount" of work in preparing the park for school activities.

Cost of Electricity
Cost of electricity for lights at the park ball fields also came under inspection. Total for 1963 was $486. Initial cost for installing the 38 lights during 1962 and 1963 was $2,381.08.

Beer licenses were granted the Seymour Baseball Club May 3 and the Magneto and Door Devils Motor Cycle Clubs from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. May 31. The baseball club also was authorized to use the park baseball facilities on Tuesday evenings for practice and Sunday afternoons for their home game schedule. The Seymour Slo-Pitch Softball team was granted use of the softball diamond and lights until Sept. 24.

Truck Loses Wheels, 20 Tons of Butter After Skid Into Ditch

Butler — 20 tons of it — was transferred from a semi-trailer truck on County Trunk A near the Rock Road after the truck skidded onto the shoulder and lost its two rear wheels.

Leonard R. Mitchell, 37, Chalfont, Pa., told county police Wednesday morning he was driving from Seymour to Chicago with a 41,000-pound load of butter. He swerved to miss an oncoming car about 7 a.m. and his truck wheels went onto the shoulder and snapped off the truck.

The butter is stored in 60 pound boxes. It was transferred to a second refrigerated truck about 9 a.m. and was rushed to Chicago while repairs were made on the first truck. Mitchell was not injured.

Kenneth Johnston New Education Unit Leader

President Is Wilson Junior High Teacher;
Appleton Unit Suggests Improved Benefits

Kenneth Johnston, English and social studies teacher at Wilson Junior High School, was elected new president of the Appleton Education Association at its annual spring meeting at Madison Junior High School. Johnston, who served this year as welfare committee chairman, succeeded Richard Goree, Franklin School principal, as president.

Other new officers are Charles Cook, Appleton High School dean of boys, vice president; Miss Sharon Dougherty, Johnston School teacher, secretary; and Philip LaBorde, Appleton Vocational and Adult School woodworking teacher, treasurer.

AEA members approved an amendment to the constitution and revisions of the by-laws which will provide for a second vice president, who will assume the office of first vice president when the first vice president automatically becomes president at the annual meeting. Jack Kolterjahn, vice president of the association this year, left the school system during the school year, leaving it without a president-elect.

Goree, in his written report, recommended that the office of second vice president be established to insure stability of the organization's leadership sequence.

Goree also recommended that the possibility of a separate grievance committee be thoroughly explored. The separation of the welfare committee's salary functions from grievance procedures is urgently needed, he said.

5 Recommendations
The welfare committee made five recommendations for next year:

1. To consider the possibility of recognition by the Board of Education as the sole bargaining agent for Appleton public school teachers.

2. To continue with efforts to have the board pay a greater portion of the teachers' accident and health insurance premiums. (The board did not grant this proposal from the AEA this year.)

3. To work toward a group life insurance plan.

4. To seek the aid of the school board for remuneration for summer school attendance, especially when attendance is required by the board.

5. To continue with present studies and committees, particularly as regards teacher load, extra pay for extra duties and the percentage index salary plans. Surveys were begun on the increased teacher load, especially on the secondary level, by the committee this year.

A total of $285 is in the AEA scholarship fund, which was started last year to aid students interested in going into teaching.

Edgerton High Group Exchanges Songs With Lawrence Musicians

Seventy-five Edgerton High School choristers had a taste of college-level choral music, and gave out free vocal samples of their own when they visited the Lawrence College campus with their director, Lawrence Conservatory graduate Carroll Gonzalo.

The young singers were guests at a morning rehearsal of the Lawrence Concert Choir, and participated in an afternoon choral clinic under Lawrence Conservatory Director LaVahn Maesch.

During the morning session, they sang with the collegians, and entertained them with several selections of their own. The Crimson Chorale, a group of 16 selected singers from the high school choir, added a number of madrigal-style works to the informal concert.

The Edgerton students had their lunch at the Lawrence dormitories, and made a tour of the campus. Late in the afternoon, they heard the combined college Men's and Women's Choruses in rehearsal under Mari Taniguchi, assistant professor of music.

German Measles Cases Set Record For Four Months

MADISON (AP) — Wisconsin had a record number of 30,800 cases of German measles in the first four months of 1964, the State Board of Health reported Wednesday.

The board noted the figure exceeded by 66 per cent the number reported in the first four months of 1958, a year when a record total of 45,000 was listed.

Dr. Josef Preizler, director of the bureau of communicable diseases, said "we could very well reach 65,000 to 75,000 cases this year if the present curve continues."

The increase was attributed to a greater number of children in the age bracket susceptible to the disease and low incidence of measles in the last few years.

Desire for Trade Cuts Into Cold War Feeling

Sudden Surge by Businessmen to Deal With Reds Explained by Dollars, Cents

BY JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON (AP)—One of the healthiest recent signs that the cold war has diminished a bit is the dollar sign. Businessmen here and elsewhere show a developing desire for a buck, even if it means trading with Communists. It showed up Wednesday at the annual meeting of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, one of the most non-Communist organizations in the country. About 90 per cent of the businessmen there voted for increased trade in nonstrategic goods with Russia and her European satellites. Total Embargo Some even wanted trade with three countries totally embarand Japan are running at about $3 billion a year. West Germany leads the list —with Britain and France next —but mostly because of exports to Communist East Germany. The United States is at the bottom of the list. Most of the Allies' trade with the Red nations has been in machinery and other nonstrategic goods. But there has long been a feeling in this country that selling anything to Communists simply strengthens communism. A classic example was the fight in Congress — it finally lost — against selling even wheat to Russia. Flexible Attitude Secretary of State Dean Rusk ran head-on into this attitude last month in telling Congress there should be more flexibility in trade with the Reds. He takes this line — and it's the Johnson administration line —that the United States should pick and choose between Communist nations on trade. This is the reasoning: That trade with certain Communist countries may encourage them

Thursday, April 30, 1964 Applen Post-Crescent A7 to show more independence of Moscow. But he wants a tight boycott —which American allies are ignoring — in dealing with Fidel Castro's Cuba. Economic Squeeze For this reason in this case: The tougher the economic squeeze on Castro, the less successful communism in Cuba will be and the more he will have to depend on Moscow which is helping to bail him out at a cost to Russia of about $1 million a day. This reasoning gets a little puzzling, since Rusk wants to make some Red countries less dependent on Moscow but Cuba more so. But the businessmen at the meeting Wednesday, while wanting more trade with the Reds, voted against giving them long-term credits. If there are no long-term American credits this in the end may put American businessmen behind the eight ball anyway in dealing with the Communists. Long-Term Credits For instance, the British are considering long-term credits. So the Russians, being businessmen, too, will naturally shop where it's to their advantage. At the same time Secretary of Commerce Luther Hodges has said he thinks this country is "moving toward a more normal trade relationship" with Soviet Russia and her European satellites. So, while there have been arguments among the Allies on such things as credit terms and what to sell, the main point is: The growing desire among businessmen on both sides of the ocean to make money from the Communists. If long-term credits become the custom, even though they're guaranteed by the individual Western governments to their businessmen, it will be a pretty good sign those same governments don't expect war while the credits last.

Okinawa—Fort to Deter Aggression

Ryukyu Islands a Network Of Air and Military Bases

BY ROBERT EUNSON
NAKA, Okinawa (AP)—“We will remain here so long as threats and tensions continue to exist.”
The threats referred to are from Communist China.
The tensions have gripped this part of the world 19 years.
Here happens to be Okinawa, a 67-mile-long island, believed to be Uncle Sam's most important nuclear weapons base in the Far East. It is 15 minutes, as the jets fly, from Red China.
The statement about remaining here was made by Lt. Gen. Paul W. Caraway, high commissioner to the Ryukyu Islands since 1961.
“We're here for national security and to fulfill our commitments to the free world,” Caraway told The Associated Press. “We can only carry out that task if we are unimpeded.”
Asked about a suggestion that political control of the Ryukyus be returned to Japan with the United States still retaining its vast network of air and military bases, Caraway replied “anything is possible.”
“Article Three of the Japanese peace treaty says the United States is given—and the Japanese agreed to it—any and all powers of administration, legislative and judicial, in the Ryukyu Islands. The United States can exercise these powers so long as it wishes,” he said.
Asked if Okinawa actually might be written off in case of an all-out war because of its proximity to the Chinese mainland, Caraway snapped: “This is an attitude that is developing in the United States, especially among Washington newsmen. We will remain here so long as threats and tensions continue to exist.”
One school of thought among this island's 95,000 American inhabitants, including the 3rd Marine Division, is that Okinawa would be safer than the mainland since both the Communists and the United States would be blasting at each other's homeland in case of atomic war.

An AP special report.

Okinawa is known as “the billion-dollar base,” but that figure can't include all Uncle Sam has invested here. The whole island is one mighty base. Military and civilian roads, telephone systems, water and power networks are completely integrated.
Bases on Japan have been emasculated, so far as any true strength is concerned, because of left-wing opposition to nuclear weapons or the basing there of planes or vessels which transport them.

Retires Soon

Caraway retires Aug. 1 and will be succeeded by Lt. Gen. Albert Watson II. The job is the nearest thing the United States has had to a governor-general in the Pacific since it gave up the Philippines. And that is the position some Americans in Okinawa want Caraway and his successor to have.
“We need an organic act by Congress which will put the Ryukyus in a commonwealth status, such as we have Puerto Rico, Guam, or used to have the Philippine Islands,” says Howard McClellan, president of the American Chamber of Commerce on Okinawa.
McClellan and other Americans here hold that a commonwealth status is necessary until such time as the islands revert to Japan.

Shakespeare Stamp On Sale at Stratford

WASHINGTON (AP)—A proposal that the special postage stamp commemorating William Shakespeare's 400th birthday first be put on sale in Stratford, Conn., was made today by Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn.
In a letter to Postmaster General John A. Gronouski, Dodd said the anniversary also marks the 10th year of Stratford's American Shakespeare Festival.
“Dedicated to offering the works of this great artist to the American public, Stratford is the most fitting location for this tribute,” Dodd wrote.

Luci Johnson Queen of Apple Blossom Festival Today

BY FRANCES LEWINE
WINCHESTER, Va. (AP)—Luci Baines Johnson was crowned queen of the Shenandoah Apple Blossom Festival today and asked to offer her prayers for a bountiful harvest.
The 16-year-old daughter of the president, surrounded by a court of princesses, maids of honor and a military escort was to take the oath before an expected crowd of thousands. Festival officials were praying, too, for a break in the rainy weather.
The coronation ceremony on the stately columned steps of Handley High School is the highlight of the three-day festival in this apple growing capital.
With state Sen. Harry F. Byrd Jr. as her escort, Luci will kneel on a pillow to receive the crown from Gen. Curtis LeMay, air force chief of staff. Her oath includes a promise to govern her domain with prudence and justice.
As “Shenandoah XXXVII Fair Queen of Apple Blossom,” Luci will reign over parades, square dances, folk singing and receptions for the next two days.
Festival officials picked a nearby orchard with the best blossoms to provide a background for Luci's coronation day picture.
Luci, finding a queen's lot a demanding one, was ordered to dress early in her embroidered long white organza coronation gown for pre-coronation activities.
She went through a rehearsal in the rain yesterday and had a bit of trouble cutting a 35-pound, 22-inch-wide homemade apple pie.
She scored a hit with an impromptu speech in which she said she was “thrilled to be here” and expected to “enjoy every minute” of the three-day festival.
Luci met the Winchester Volunteer Festival workers and prominent local residents yesterday. She attended a luncheon of combined civic organizations and afterward more than a score of Winchester businessmen lined up for her autograph.
“I didn't know I'd have so many attractive men stand up for me,” she joshed at the luncheon. “I want you to know I appreciate it.”

No Trace Found Of Missing Baby

CHICAGO (AP)—Police and FBI agents doggedly pressed a search today for a baby kidnapped from a hospital, although clue after clue proved futile.
The latest lead to fizzle was that concerning a practical nurse who once worked at Michael Reese Hospital. Two witnesses, said Wednesday she was not the woman dressed as a nurse who last Monday tricked a mother into giving her baby.
The baby, Paul Joseph Fronczak, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Fronczak, was less than two days old when he was taken from his mother's arms in the maternity section of Michael Reese Hospital by the fake nurse on the pretext that she wanted to return him to the nursery.
Each day the baby remains unaccounted for increases fears for his safety.

Reynolds Appoints A New Judge for Milwaukee County

MADISON (AP)—Elliot Walstead, 59, former Wisconsin Democratic party chairman, was appointed a Milwaukee County judge Wednesday by Gov. John W. Reynolds.

Walstead will succeed Judge Leander Foley, who was elected April 7 to a Circuit judgeship. The appointment will be until January, 1966.

Walstead was a deputy attorney general under Reynolds when the governor was attorney general. He was the Democratic nominee for attorney general. He was the Democratic nominee for attorney general in the 1962 election but his bid to succeed Reynolds failed.

Walstead, a graduate of the University of Wisconsin Law School who now practices in Milwaukee, was executive secretary of the Wisconsin Real Estate Brokers Board for about 10 years. He was state Democratic party chairman from 1953 to 1955.

In Milwaukee, Democratic Assemblyman Isaac Coggs, who confronted Reynolds publicly earlier this year and demanded that he name a Negro to the judgeship, said he was disappointed.

Coggs had told Reynolds at the dedication of Milwaukee's new state office building that Negroes would boycott him at the polls in November if he failed to appoint one of their race to the bench.

He said today that he believes some Negroes are as well qualified as Walstead for the post. He added that he and others would confer with the governor and then make a decision whether to carry out a boycott.

Legislature Agrees on Funds and Votes Recess

by a state surplus he estimated at $50.5 million.

Assembly Republicans challenged the surplus estimate and chose to take the money from a fund the 1961 Legislature created for general property tax relief.

The conference committee got over the hurdle with a recommendation that both sources be tapped equally to pay the bill.

Sliding Scale
The benefits will be determined on a sliding scale formula, with those eligible adding five per cent of their first $2,000 in income and 20 per cent of all after that. That total is deducted from the individual's property tax or a standard figure of $300, whichever is lower.

Persons earning $1,000 or less get 75 per cent of the amount remaining as their benefit. Those with income over $1,000 are entitled to 50 per cent of the difference.

Renters would take 25 per cent of their annual rental cost as a property tax figure and use that as a basis for their computations.

Reynolds said the bill was “the greatest step forward in tax legislation that this state or any other state has ever taken.” He continued: “For the first time in the history of Wisconsin, or of the nation, we are relating the burden of property tax to the income of the taxpayer. For the first time we are recognizing that those who are aged have special financial problems that require special treatment.”

Senate President Pro Tem Frank Panzer, R-Brownsville, and Assembly Speaker Robert Haase, R-Marquette, said in a joint statement that the GOP majorities in both houses had met “the responsibilities we have to aid our senior citizens.” They said the tax relief program would become a companion to a recently adopted medical aid to the aged plan.

Huber Criticizes Bill
“This twofold package of real relief for our citizens over 65 is unrivaled in these United States,” they said.

After the conference committee had ironed out the finance stalemate, the bill was passed 71-15 by the Assembly. It had of Timi, near the western port of Paphos.

A U.N. spokesman said the Swedes were attacked when they attempted to halt a gun battle between Greek and Turkish Cypriots. The Swedes fired 45 rounds before halting the fight, the spokesman said.

There were no reports of any casualties.

Thant called on Cyprus' Greek Cypriot president, Archbishop Makarios, and its Turkish Cypriot vice president, Fazil Kuchuk, to renounce without delay any further bloodshed in the four-month-old communal strife.

Thant Urges Amnesty

In his “program of reasonable objectives,” Thant urged a general amnesty, disarming of all irregulars, removing fortified positions to assure freedom of movement, establishing joint U.N.-Greek-Turkish patrols, resuming public services to isolated Turkish villages, recalling Turkish civil servants to their jobs with the Greek-dominated government, reintegration of Greek and Turkish Cypriot members of the police force, cleared the Senate on a 22-8 vote.

In Assembly debate, Democratic Floorleader Robert Huber of West Allis said the bill was “an unfinished product,” and accused Republicans of acting only after Reynolds had advanced his plan.

Assembly GOP Floorleader Paul Alfonsi of Minocqua challenged Democrats to vote against the bill.

Before the measure came to a vote in the Senate, Allen Busby, R-Milwaukee, spoke against the provision that takes half the cost from the general property tax pool.

He called it a “dangerous inroad” that could bring an end to general property tax relief in Wisconsin.

State to Pay for Fish Industry's Ad Campaign

MADISON (AP)—Gov. John W. Reynolds signed into law Wednesday a bill appropriating $25,000 to advertise Wisconsin's commercial fishing industry.

The money will be used by the Wisconsin Department of Agriculture for advertising in an effort to help the fishing industry recoup markets lost during the 1963 botulism scare.

Other bills signed would:

Exempt from property taxation non-profit institutions for mentally deficient children. The bill was introduced at the request of St. Coletta School in Jefferson County.

Appropriate funds for legal counsel representing the Legislature in reapportionment lawsuits.

Provide that income tax reports supplied to municipalities on request are open to examination by municipal officers only.

and return of Turkish Cypriot refugees to their homes in selected areas under U.N. protection.

Factions Set Conditions
To aid in negotiations to achieve these goals, Thant said he would appoint a top-level political officer to work with the U.N. commander, Lt. Gen. Prem Singh Gyani. No name was announced.

Thant's proposals received cautious approval from the Cypriot and Turkish ambassadors to the U.N., but they also set major conditions.

Ambassador Zenon Rossides, head of the Cyprus delegation which represents the Greek Cypriot community, said the Turkish Cypriots would have to surrender their constitutional veto over major legislation. This is the issue that started the fighting.

Turkish Ambassador Erhan Eralp said Thant's proposals could only be achieved through compulsion by a strengthened U.N. force.

Democratic Second Spot Is a Puzzle

A Big Question
Along With GOP Presidential Hope

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — The biggest question in national politics today is not merely who will become the Republican presidential nominee but whether Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy will be the Democratic vice presidential nominee.

It is easy to see enough to say that the dilemma is more theoretical than real and that President Johnson will pick his own running mate.

But the problem is not so simple. The American people aren't ready yet to concede that national party conventions should be "bossed" by the winner of the presidential nomination, although there have been such instances in recent years in both parties. It should be noted that there have been in the past some spirited contests over the vice-presidential nomination at both party conventions, and the decision has not always rested with the top man in the party but has been influenced by leaders in different command posts in the political organizations.

Bobby's Friends

So far as the friends of Bobby Kennedy are concerned, the fight has hardly begun. They are very influential inside the party in the big cities of the populous states which have large electoral votes. These individuals are active politicians who worked under Bobby Kennedy when he was running his brother's campaign before and after the convention of 1960. They are persons who feel there is a sentiment for the Kennedy name inside and outside the party which amounts to a real emotion.

It is all very well to say by way of rebuttal that the present attorney general has antagonized the south politically by his dramatic moves in enforcement of court orders in "civil rights" cases. But for every electoral vote that could be lost in the south, it is contended that there are far more electoral votes at stake in the north that could be lost if key men and women in the party organizations were disappointed and became apathetic because the attorney general had been turned down.

Civil Rights

There are those, on the other hand, who say that Mr. Johnson had better let well enough alone—that the "civil rights" controversy may cost him votes in the north and south anyway, and that he shouldn't complicate the situation by making it theoretically possible for Bobby Kennedy to be president some day.

Many politicians in their private analyses of the situation suggest that Mr. Johnson will virtually have to take a computer to figure out what gains and losses are involved in selecting or failing to select Bobby Kennedy for the vice-presidential nomination—and then try to come up with an answer.

In Washington in the last three years many observers have said from time to time that they thought the attorney general was far more conscious of the facts of life and was even more astute in his understanding of public affairs than was his brother in the White House. The latter, it has often been reported, relied heavily on the attorney general for advice not merely on legal questions but on national and international policies.

Radio Interview

Last Sunday night in an interview broadcast by radio station WBZ in Boston, Senator Edward M. Kennedy unequivocally set forth his brother's qualifications for the vice-presidential nomination. The Massachusetts senator said:

"I would say that the attorney general has built up a significant national following, has established a reputation of his own before even the time he was appointed to the attorney generalship. He'd made, I believe, an outstanding record in the Senate Rackets Committee.

"I think personally any fair evaluation would suggest that he's done a capable job as attorney general. He's been in-involved in the National Security Council on the crucial questions of Cuba and Southeast Asia. He's been involved in foreign policy, and I feel therefore he has considerable following of his own throughout the country.

"But I think when you talk about the question of the vice presidency you have to keep in mind that this decision will be made, as it should be made, by President Johnson."

Party Liability

Were it not for the "civil rights" controversy—which some folks in the inner circle here think might make the attorney general a liability to the Democratic ticket—there wouldn't be the slightest hesitancy on the part of some highly placed Democrats in urging President Johnson to choose the attorney general for the vice-presidential nomination. The age argument wouldn't be an obstacle, especially since the political strength of the late President Kennedy himself was to no small extent due to the image of youth presented to the young voters of the country, whose number is considerable.

There is still, of course, the religious issue which, while not referred to in any public comments about Bobby Kennedy's chances for the vice-presidential nomination, is frequently discussed privately by the politicians from the standpoint of advantages and disadvantages.

It is surprising to find, incidentally, in a country devoted to the principles of democracy such widespread acquiescence in the idea that the selection of a vice president—who is, of course, a possible president—should not be voted on by a free convention of the party, and that the choice should be dictated by the presidential nominee himself after the manner of a party boss.

Threat Subsides For Samarkand

MOSCOW (AP)—A 40,000-man force worked today to release the landslide-trapped waters of the Zeravshan River, but the urgency of their task appeared diminished.

The huge labor force worked around the clock to cut a drain-off canal through the landslide which filled a narrow canyon between the Zeravshan and Turkestan mountain ranges last Friday and dammed the river.

Moscow papers said that the famed cities of Samarkand, 100 miles downriver, and Bukhara, 130 miles farther along the Zeravshan's course, were in no danger of floods. But a number of villages below the landslide dam have been evacuated.

Exclusive Volumetric Combustion gives an instant, clean flame which burns at top efficiency—no smoke or soot... no waste of fuel. Heat is "locked" in the furnace between firing periods and not wasted up the chimney. Thousands of owners report exceptional oil savings. No soot means that the cause of about 90% of service calls is also eliminated. Phone us, or come in—we'll demonstrate.
